Opening ceremonies kick off Olympics

Belated and beleaguered, the virus-delayed Tokyo Summer Olympics finally opened Friday with a dazzling display of fireworks and soaring, made-for-TV choreography that unfolded in a near-empty stadium, a strangely subdued ceremony that set a striking tone to match a unique pandemic Games. As their opening unfolded, devoid of the usual crowd energy, the Olympics convened amid simmering anger and disbelief in much of the host country, but with hopes from organizers that the excitement of the sports to follow would offset the widespread opposition.

States offered $26B opioid settlement

A bipartisan coalition of state attorneys general announced on Wednesday a $26 billion national settlement with drugmaker Johnson & Johnson and three companies that distributed opioid painkillers even as addiction and overdose deaths skyrocketed. North Carolina state Attorney General Josh Stein, one of the lead negotiators, said the deal will "force these drug companies to pay a historic amount of money to bring much-needed treatment and recovery services" to North Carolina and other states that sign on to the settlement.

Healthy Dunbar Road returns

By David Grening

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. – Dunbar Road returns to the site of her biggest victory Sunday as she tries to get her first victory in a year when she runs in the Grade 3, $200,000 Shuvee Stakes for older fillies and mares at Saratoga.

Dunbar Road, a 5-year-old daughter of Quality Road owned by Peter Brant and trained by Chad Brown, won the Grade 1 Alabama here in 2019. She had a promising start to her 4-year-old career with a stakes win at Churchill Downs and the Grade 2 Delaware Handicap. Dunbar Road had a throat issue last year, but she finished her campaign with a solid third in the Breeders' Cup Distaff behind Monomoy Girl and Point of Honor.

In her lone start this year, Dunbar Road finished fifth, beaten four lengths by Shedaresthedevil, in the Grade 1 La Troienne at Churchill Downs.

Shortly afterward, Dunbar Road was diagnosed with a throat infection that landed her in an equine clinic.

"I was quite worried about her for a while," Brown said. "She's had a good string of works now. I expect her to run pretty good."

Dunbar Road, who breaks from post 4 under Irad Ortiz Jr., is one of three entered by Brown in this race.

Royal Flag finished second to Letruska in this race last year. She ended 2020 with a 2 1/4-length win in the Grade 3 Turnback the Alarm at Aqueduct. In her lone start this year, Royal Flag was beaten a head by Bonny South in the Grade 2 Doubledogdare at Keeneland on April 16. Graceful Princess, the third-place finisher in that race, won last weekend's Grade 3 Molly Pitcher at Monmouth Park.

Brown said Royal Flag was one of several horses in his care that was impacted by a virus that went through the barn during the spring.

"She was one of the ones that got it, and it knocked her out a bit," Brown said. "She's been training well of late."

Royal Flag, a 5-year-old daughter of Candy Ride, has never finished worse than third in nine career starts.

Brown also sends out Gold Spirit, a Chilean-bred filly who hasn't raced since December in her native country. She has beaten males in group races back home and has trained well enough for Brown to give her a shot here.

Both Dunbar Road and Royal Flag figure to benefit from the seeming presence of ample speed in the field. Crystal Ball, narrowly beaten by Paris Lights in last year's Grade 1 Coaching Club American Oaks, won three straight races including the Lady Jacqueline Stakes at Thistledown. She figures to be part of the pace along with Antoinette and/or Horologist, the latter two trained by Bill Mott.

Liberty M D, who is 2 for 2, also may be a forward factor.

Antoinette has had more success on turf than dirt, but is coming off a second-place finish behind Letruska in the Grade 2 Fleur de Lis at Churchill Downs.

"Her speed figures are actually better on dirt if that means anything," Mott said.

Mott also felt that Horologist being taken back in her last two starts compromised her chances.

The Shuvee, a stepping-stone to the Grade 1 Personal Ensign here Aug. 28, goes as race 9 on a 10-race card.

DEL MAR

Brandothebartender back on grass

By Steve Andersen

Despite a two-race losing streak, the 8-year-old gelding Brandothebartender will start in Sunday's $150,000 California Dreamin' Stakes at Del Mar in the midst of his best season.

Brandothebartender won consecutive turf stakes for California-breds at Santa Anita in the spring, the Sensational Star Stakes at six furlongs on March 21 and the Crystal Water Stakes at a mile on April 24. That was the first time Brandothebartender won consecutive stakes in his 45-race career.

June was not as kind. A good second in the Albany Stakes at five furlongs on turf at Golden Gate Fields on June 12 was followed two weeks later by a dull fourth in the five-runner Bertrando Stakes at a mile on dirt at Los Alamitos.

Trainer Craig Dollase is ready to forget the Bertrando Stakes and focus on Brandthebartender's return to turf in the California Dreamin' Stakes for statebreds at 1 1/16 miles.

"I think going back on turf is a big plus," Dollase said. "He didn't take to the dirt too well at Los Al. He was on the inside and he wasn't a happy camper."

Owned by the partnership of Flawless Racing, Brian Flanagan, and Michael Jarvis, Brandothebartender is one of several contenders in a field of 10. Desmond Doss, Indian Peak, Galilean, North County Guy, Ward 'n Jerry, and Wound Tight have won stakes since the beginning of 2020.

Margot's Boy has yet to win a stakes, but was second in the Grade 2 Del Mar Derby last September. Secret Club and Unbridled Ethos have won allowance races on turf this year.

"I think we're in the mix," Dollase said. "There are a lot of comebackers, but we're in good form."

Galilean and Brandothebartender were first and third in in the 2020 California Dreamin' Stakes. Desmond Doss was fourth in that race and more recently won the Bertrando for his first stakes win in his 14th start.

Sunday's race will be the 2021 debut for Galilean, a six-time stakes winner unraced since a fourth as the even-money favorite in the Cary Grant Stakes for statebreds at seven furlongs at Del Mar last November.

The California Dreamin' is the second start of the year for Wound Tight, who won the Unusual Heat Turf Classic for statebreds at 1 1/8 miles at Santa Anita in January 2020. Wound Tight was fourth in the Siren Lure Stakes at 6 1/2 furlongs on turf at Santa Anita on June 19 in his first start in 15 months.

"When I ran him, he was maybe 80 percent fit," trainer Bob Hess Jr. said. "I was shocked at how well he ran. We've been pointing to this race for three months."

Hess expects jockey Kent Desormeaux to have Wound Tight on the front end from post 2. There really is no other option.

"We have a lot of speed," Hess said. "He's ready to run.

"The horse is pretty headstrong. He's pretty much going right to the front. The horse pulls."

Channel Maker will kick off second half in Bowling Green

By David Grening

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. – After chasing big prizes in the Middle East during the winter, Channel Maker, North America's male turf champion of 2020, will kick off the U.S. portion of his 7-year-old campaign in next Saturday's Grade 2, $250,000 Bowling Green Stakes at Saratoga.

Channel Maker completed preparations for the Bowling Green on Friday, working six furlongs in 1:14.75 over the Oklahoma turf course. Channel Maker got his last three furlongs in 36.06 seconds, with the graded stakes-winning filly War Like Goddess finishing on even terms after starting two lengths back of Channel Maker. War Like Goddess is pointing to the Grade 2, $250,000 Glens Falls at 1 1/2 miles here Aug. 7.

Channel Maker, trained by Bill Mott, will be starting in the Bowling Green for the fourth consecutive year. He dead-heated for win in this race in 2018 with Glorious Empire. In 2019, he finished fourth, beaten three-quarters of a length. Last year, he finished fourth in the Bowling Green, but was elevated to third after being interfered with by Sadler's Joy in the stretch.

Channel Maker came out of the Bowling Green to win the Grade 1 Sword Dancer and then the Grade 1 Joe Hirsch Turf Classic at Belmont Park. Those two victories combined with his close third-place finish behind Tarnawa and Magical in the Breeders' Cup Turf helped earn Channel Maker an Eclipse Award.

This year, Channel Maker finished second in the $1 million Neom Turf Cup in Saudi Arabia in February before finishing eighth in the $5 million Dubai Sheema Turf Classic at Meydan.

Use this code on your phone to get DRF's Saratoga Clocker Report.

"The Dubai race was tougher and he ran hard," Mott said. "He put on a show for a little while and they ran him down, but they're good horses."

Though Mott was always planning to wait for the Bowling Green with Channel Maker, he did say the horse lost a little training time in June due to a fever.

"At least we had some work in him when he got sick instead of waiting for the last minute," Mott said.

Mott plans on running at least two and possibly three horses in the Bowling Green, run at 1 3/8 miles. Moon Over Miami, third in the Grade 1 Man o' War, is pointing to the race. Red Knight is possible.

Meanwhile, Mott is looking forward to getting War Like Goddess back to the races in the Glens Falls. War Like Goddess, who has won 4 of 5 races, won the Grade 3 Orchid at Gulfstream in March and the Grade 3 Bewitch at Keeneland.

"I don't think we've been running against inferior horses," Mott said. "She's looked pretty good and doesn't have that much experience."

Kimari skips Honorable Miss

Kimari, the Grade 1 Madison Stakes winner, was held out of a planned start in next Wednesday's Grade 2, $200,000 Honorable Miss Handicap when entries were taken Friday.

Trainer Wesley Ward said he felt the 4-year-old filly wasn't 100 percent this week. Though a complete evaluation by Dr. Luis Castro, complete with X-rays and ultrasounds, showed no physical issues, Ward said he wasn't comfortable entering Kimari in the six-furlong race.

"Visually, she's not quite right," Ward said. "When you're thinking about [running] a filly of this quality, you want her absolutely breathing fire. The owner, Dave Mowat, was very, very nice about it. He said no worries, even though he had his trip here already planned."

Ward said he would not think about a possible start in the Grade 1 Ballerina on Aug. 28, or any race for that matter, until he's satisfied with how the filly is training.

With Kimari's defection, the Honorable Miss field swelled to nine. From the rail out, the field is: Ain't No Elmers, Reagan's Edge, Sadie Lady, Lake Avenue, Truth Hurts, Don't Call Me Mary, Honey I'm Good, Miss Mosaic, and Bell's the One.

Conversely, Ward was very happy with the way Bound for Nowhere breezed on the Oklahoma turf course on Friday morning in preparation for the Grade 3, $200,000 Troy Stakes on Aug. 6. Bound for Nowhere, third as the favorite in the Grade 1 Jaipur last out, worked five furlongs in 59.38 seconds, starting one length behind the multiple stakes-winning filly Wink and finishing about three-quarters in front at the wire.

Maxfield works for Whitney

Maxfield got his first feel for the Saratoga main track Friday when he worked five furlongs in 1:01 09 in company with Business Model. Maxfield got his final quarter in 24.40 seconds and galloped out six furlongs in 1:14.41 and seven furlongs in 1:27.46.

Maxfield, winner of the Grade 2 Stephen Foster at Churchill Downs in his most recent start, is pointing to the Grade 1 Whitney on Aug. 7.

Maxfield worked over the Oklahoma training track last Friday. Trainer Brendan Walsh felt it was important to get a work over the main track because he believes it's been different from the Oklahoma training track in the early stages of the meet.

"The general consensus is that it's deep," Walsh said. "Last week it looked like it was quite heavy, quite slow. I think it's important to get him a spin on it. I thought it was very good. He looked like he handled the track good, which was important."

– David Grening

Beren works too fast

Trainer Butch Reid Jr. would love to run his red-hot 3-year-old Beren next Friday in the 1 1/8-mile Curlin at Saratoga. But after Beren worked four furlongs in a blistering 46.78 seconds here just before the renovation break on Friday, Reid is having second thoughts.

"His work this morning was too good, too fast," Reid said. "I really wanted him to go like he did last time, easy, in 48 and change, which is why I didn't put a jock on him. It just doesn't feel right to send him a mile and one-eighth in one week off a work like this."

Beren, a winner of five of his last six starts, has been nominated to all three 3-year-old stakes here next week, the Curlin, the 1 1/8-mile Jim Dandy on Saturday, and the 6 1/2-furlong Amsterdam next Sunday.

"I'd love to keep him around two turns, but if it looks like the two extra days to the Amsterdam is what he needs, we'll go there instead of the Curlin," Reid said. "We'll just let him tell us as the week goes along."

Superstition fresh, ready for Daisycutter

By Steve Andersen

A seven-week gap between starts may benefit Superstition when the 4-year-old filly starts in Sunday's $80,000 Daisycutter Handicap at Del Mar on Sunday.

Superstition was third by five lengths in the Grade 2 Monrovia Stakes at 6 1/2 furlongs for fillies and mares at Santa Anita on June 5, a loss that led trainer Richard Mandella to reassess her campaign.

"It looked like she needed a break," Mandella said. "So I decided to freshen her up."

Superstition has since had two workouts, including a quick five furlongs in 58.60 seconds last Monday.

"She'll work as fast as you want," Mandella said. "She seems pretty good. That work shows it."

The Daisycutter Stakes is run at five furlongs on turf for fillies and mares and drew an excellent field, including Bulletproof One, Constantia, and Gypsy Spirit, stakes winners in the last year.

Constantia and Superstition have met three times this year. Constantia was third behind Superstition in the Wishing Well Stakes at Santa Anita in February. Constantia and Superstition were first and third in the Mizdirection Stakes on April 17. Constantia was later second to Venetian Harbor in the Monrovia.

The Daisycutter Stakes is the first start of 2021 for Bulletproof One, who is expected to set the pace from an inside post.

Plans for Cupid's Claws

The former claimer Cupid's Claws will start in the Grade 1 Pacific Classic or Grade 2 Del Mar Handicap on Aug. 21 after a game second-place finish in the Grade 3 Cougar II Stakes at 1 1/2 miles on July 18.

Cupid's Claws was beaten 2 1/4 lengths by Pacific Classic hopeful Tizmagician in the Cougar II Stakes on dirt after dueling for the lead on the turn.

Trainer Craig Dollase said Friday that a race goal will be finalized for Cupid's Claws in mid-August after nominations are published for the $750,000 Pacific Classic at 1 1/4 miles on dirt and the $300,000 Del Mar Handicap at 1 3/8 miles on turf.

"We've got options," Dollase said. "I'm not leaning one way or another. We're happy to see him rebound after his last race."

Cupid's Claws was claimed for $50,000 when third in an optional claimer at 1 1/8 miles on turf at Del Mar last September, the third time the gelding was claimed at the track's summer meeting. Cupid's Claws won his debut for Dollase in the Grade 3 Tokyo City Stakes at 1 1/2 miles at Santa Anita last September.

California handle up

All-sources handle at all California venues increased 20 percent, to $1.53 billion, in the first six months of the year compared to a similar period in 2020.

The data was announced by Scott Chaney, executive director of the California Horse Racing Board, at a meeting Wednesday.

The 2021 figures were boosted by a significant increase in the number of race programs, from 203 in 2020 to 270 this year. In 2020, the pandemic disrupted Thoroughbred meetings at Golden Gate Fields and Santa Anita and the harness meeting at Cal-Expo. Handle at all of the state's racetracks was $1.27 billion in the first six months of 2020.

Handle at Thoroughbred tracks was $1.34 billion, a gain of 24.5 percent compared to $1.08 billion in the first six months of 2020. Ontrack handle at Thoroughbred venues was down 15.4 percent, from $43.3 million in 2020 to $36.6 million this year.

Account-wagering handle increased 22 percent earlier this year, from $531.6 million in 2020 to $648.4 million this year.

Drink the Wind highly regarded

Drink the Wind has displayed enough ability in recent workouts for trainer Peter Miller to rate the 2-year-old as a contender for the Grade 1 Del Mar Futurity on Sept. 6. The first objective, however, is a maiden special weight race at 5 1/2 furlongs at Del Mar on Sunday.

Drink the Wind, a More Than Ready ridgling owned by breeder Peachtree Stable, drew post 2 in a field of seven. Miller was left encouraged when Drink the Wind worked a half-mile in 46.20 from the gate at Del Mar on Monday, a continuation of a series of promising workouts at the San Luis Rey Downs training center.

"We think he's a very good colt," Miller said. "He showed an awful lot of speed the other day and did it kind of wrapped up."

Drink the Wind is out of Crushed Velvet, who was third in the Grade 2 Santa Ynez Stakes at Santa Anita in 2014 for trainer Bob Baffert.

Sunday, Baffert has three runners in the maiden race – Carbonite, third in a similar race at Los Alamitos on June 27, and the first-time starters Barossa and Murray.

Carbonite, the mount of Mike Smith, will be fitted with blinkers for the first time. Barossa, by Into Mischief, is out of the two-time stakes winner Bouquet Booth. Murray, by Street Sense, has worked quickly in the last month and will be ridden by Flavien Prat.

WOODBINE

Speedy Admiralty Pier back on his game for the Niagara

By Ron Gierkink

ETOBICOKE, Ontario – Admiralty Pier, who rebounded off a subpar showing at Churchill Downs here on July 4, will move back up to stakes company in Sunday's $100,000 Niagara, an overnight event going about 1 1/8 miles on the main turf at Woodbine.

Admiralty Pier, a front-runner trained by Barbara Minshall, began his season by running second with a career-high 102 Beyer Speed Figure in a 1 1/8-mile allowance at Keeneland in April. He stretched out to 1 1/2 miles on May 15 in the Louisville at Churchill, during which he set a moderate pace before tiring to finish nearly 10 lengths back in 12th.

When back on Lasix here July 4, Admiralty Pier wired second-level allowance opposition going 1 1/16 miles. Minshall felt that going without Lasix wasn't an excurse for Admiralty Pier in the Grade 3 Louisville.

"We were stabled at Keeneland and he had to ship to Churchill that day," Minshall recalled. "He got really wound up. He was sweaty. He wasn't himself. The jock didn't know him.

"A mile and half is probably a little too far for him. I think he's really good up to 1 1/4 miles. You can just throw that race out. The race before at Keeneland, he was cool as a cucumber, and ran well there."

Steven Bahen will ride 6-year-old Admiralty Pier for Hoolie Racing Stable and Bruce Lunsford.

Horse-for-course March to the Arch should be favored off a good second to 2020 Canadian Horse of the Year Mighty Heart in his season opener in the Grade 3 Dominion Day on the Tapeta.

March to the Arch took the Grade 2 King Edward here last August with a powerful stretch kick, before ending up second to Starship Jubilee in the Grade 1 Woodbine Mile. A wide trip led to his downfall in the Breeders' Cup Mile at Keeneland.

Patrick Husbands retains the mount on March to the Arch, who is trained by Mark Casse for last year's Sovereign Award-winning owner Live Oak Plantation.

Belichick, who won his maiden in last year's 1 1/2-mile Breeders' Stakes, seems ready for a peak race in his third run of the season. He hit the front too soon before getting nailed on the wire in a May 13 first-level allowance on the grass at Churchill. When switching to the Tapeta here July 3, he cleared the first allowance condition after a stretch battle with Tecumseh's War.

Current is the first Woodbine starter for Canadian-born Jamie Begg, a former Casse assistant. Current wound up third in his last start in a second-level allowance at Monmouth Park.

Theregoesjojo, a former competitor in the Woodbine Turf Endurance Series, was recently second here in a second-level allowance for trainer Mike DePaulo.

Mnemba Island was supplemented at a cost of $2,000.

GULFSTREAM

Turf stakes rescheduled due to forecast

By Marty McGee

The $60,000 Bay Harbor Islands scheduled for Sunday at Gulfstream Park attracted an ample number of entries, but the five-furlong turf race for fillies and mares is not part of the 10-race card because of weather considerations, according to Mike Lakow, vice president of racing operations at the South Florida track.

"We're expected to maybe have rain Sunday, and I didn't want to present it, then have it scratch down to just a handful," Lakow said early Friday. "We're supposed to have great weather next weekend, and we'd like to fold it in with our big Florida Sire Stakes races for 2-year-olds, along with another handicap," the $60,000 3 Sons Brewing Co. Sprint for 3-year-olds and up at six furlongs. "It'd all make for a great day."

With that, the Sunday card comprises all claiming races, including five for maidens, except for a $37,000 starter-optional that serves as the nominal feature. Corey, a gray 3-year-old filly claimed from a winning last start by Peter Walder, figures to vie for favoritism with Baby Lion in a field of seven in the 6 1/2-furlong race.

A pool guarantee of about $700,000 in the 20-cent Rainbow 6 (races 5-10) can be expected for Sunday, assuming the jackpot wasn't swept Friday or Saturday by a solo winning ticket. First post is 12:50 p.m. Eastern. A 60 percent rain chance is in the local forecast.

After Sunday, Gulfstream goes dark until another three-day weekend starts Friday. As Lakow said, the highlights next weekend are the $100,000 Dr. Fager and $100,000 Desert Vixen, a pair of 2-year-old sprints that kick off the annual Florida Sire Stakes series on Saturday. Entries will be drawn Wednesday, with sizable fields expected for the Sire Stakes events.

Meanwhile, the three-day schedule that Gulfstream has undertaken during a six-month-long spring-summer meet that began April 1 is "proceeding very smoothly," Lakow said.

"It's working for us now, with everything else we've got going on," he said.

Drainage work on the new Tapeta surface has been completed, said Lakow, with drainage improvements on the inner turf course happening now. The Tapeta course is scheduled for completion in about six more weeks, with racing over it starting as early as the second week of September, "depending on how weather might affect progress," he added.

In the meantime, Gulfstream is carding five to six dirt races per card. Double settings are currently unavailable on the turf course, which has traditionally undergone heavy use.

"Everybody knows how popular the turf racing is here with horsemen and fans," Lakow said. "We're getting by for the time being, and everybody is really excited about how having three courses is going to make for a great racing product down the line."

PEDIGREE PROFILE

Dance Some Mo

Uncle Mo – Dance Again, by Awesome Again

Bred in Ontario by Sam-Son Farm

Dance Some Mo brings a family history of success in the Queen's Plate and other Canadian classics into the chase for the 2021 Plate. The gelded son of young American classic sire Uncle Mo is a homebred from one of the most successful Sam-Son Farm families, and both his third and fourth dams won the Queen's Plate.

Dance Some Mo is out of Dance Again, a half-sister to Canadian classic-placed Swoop and Strike. Winner of the Carotene Stakes at Woodbine and third in the Grade 2 Mrs. Revere on the Churchill Downs turf, Dance Again is the dam of a pair of winners from as many starters.

Dance Again's granddam is Canadian champion Dancethruthedawn, winner of the 2001 Woodbine Oaks and Queen's Plate and then second in the Prince of Wales, the second leg of the Canadian Triple Crown. She was later a Grade 1 winner in New York.

Dancethruthedawn was one of two Canadian classic winners produced by the great Dance Smartly, Canada's Horse of the Year in 1991, when she swept the Canadian Triple Crown and went on to take the Breeders' Cup Distaff. In total, she won 12 of 17 starts, including 10 stakes, and earned more than $3.2 million.

As a broodmare, she was equally prolific, producing Scatter the Gold, who won the 2000 Queen's Plate and Prince of Wales before finishing third in his Triple Crown bid in the Breeders' Stakes, followed by Dancethruthedawn. Dance Smartly also produced Grade 2 winner Dance With Ravens, Grade 3-placed Dance to Destiny, and stakes-placed Dance Brightly.

Dance Smartly was out of fellow Canadian champion Classy 'n Smart. This storied family is also responsible for Eclipse and Sovereign Award champion Sky Classic; Canadian champions Always a Classic, El Tormenta, Grey Classic, Hello Seattle, Regal Classic, and Say the Word; Grade 1 winner and leading sire Smart Strike; and Grade 1 winners Full of Wonder and Moreno.

QUEEN'S PLATE

Sam-Son looks for sixth win

By Alex Campbell

MICHAEL BURNS

Tio Magico carries the Sam-Son Farm colors to victory in the Queenston on July 11 at Woodbine.

ETOBICOKE, Ontario – The famed red and gold silks of Sam-Son Farm have been in the Queen's Plate winner's circle on five occasions, with its last Queen's Plate win coming 12 years ago by Eye of the Leopard in 2009. Since then, Sam-Son has had a pair of runner-up finishes from 10 starters in the Queen's Plate – Hotep in 2010 and Up With the Birds in 2013.

Sam-Son Farm's Queen's Plate wins came with the colts Regal Intention in 1998, Scatter the Gold in 2000, and Eye of the Leopard, along with the fillies Dance Smartly in 1991 and Dancethruthedawn in 2001. Dance Smartly went on to become the 10th Canadian Triple Crown winner, and second filly to accomplish the feat, when she won the Prince of Wales and Breeders' Stakes.

This year, three Sam-Son Farm homebreds might enter the starting gate for the $1 million Queen's Plate on Aug. 22 at Woodbine. It could also be one of the final times a Sam-Son Farm horse runs in the Queen's Plate following the farm's announcement last October that it would disperse the stable over 12 to 18 months.

Gail Cox trains a pair of Sam-Son Queen's Plate possibles in Queenston Stakes winner Tio Magico and two-time winner Tidal Forces, who was most recently fifth in the Grade 3 Marine Stakes on July 11. Graham Motion trains Sam-Son Farm's Dance Some Mo, who finished second to Harlan Estate in an allowance over 1 1/8-miles on the Woodbine Tapeta on July 16.

Tio Magico is the most experienced of the Sam-Son Farm runners, with eight starts. Following a 2-year-old campaign that saw him win at 1 1/16 miles and finish second in the Coronation Futurity, he spent the winter with Cox at Payson Park training center in Indiantown, Fla., and made two starts at Gulfstream Park. He finished third in an allowance on the dirt March 11 and then was fifth in an allowance at a mile on the turf on April 11.

With the Woodbine meet pushed back because of the pandemic, Cox sent Tio Magico to Belmont Park in May, and the son of Uncle Mo finished seventh on turf in an allowance race.

At Woodbine this year, Tio Magico finished fifth under Luis Contreras in an allowance going 1 1/16 miles on Tapeta on June 19, won by his stablemate Tidal Forces. He bounced back nicely with a gate-to-wire victory in the Queenston Stakes over seven furlongs on July 11.

Cox said being close to the lead early in the race appears to be where Tio Magico is most comfortable.

"Running seven-eighths, Luis could just leave him alone," Cox said, regarding the Queenston. "He does have some natural speed, and we'll see how that works out."

Tidal Forces, meanwhile, didn't debut until April, with a victory at 1 1/8 miles on turf at Gulfstream Park. Tidal Forces made it 2 for 2 in the June 19 allowance race, and then finished fifth in the Grade 3 Marine Stakes on July 11 at Woodbine.

Tidal Forces inherited the early lead from his rail post in the Marine, and Cox said that's not how he wants to run.

"Usually, he comes out and settles a little bit," Cox said. "He'd be close, but not on the lead. He didn't look like he relaxed very much at all."

Cox said Tidal Forces would train up to the Queen's Plate, and that the stretch-out in distance from the 1 1/16 miles of the Marine to the 1 1/4 miles of the Plate should suit the son of Malibu Moon just fine.

"He wants to go farther," Cox said. "He's naturally like that. We wanted to make sure he had lots of time before the Plate."

Dance Some Mo has been based with Motion at the Fair Hill Training Center in Maryland, and like Tidal Forces, seems to be a horse that enjoys added ground. He won a maiden race on May 13 at Churchill Downs going 1 1/8 miles on turf in his third start and was second in an allowance race on Tapeta on July 16 at Woodbine over the same distance. In between, he ran seventh in a 1 1/4-mile turf allowance at Belmont Park in June.

Cox, who has never started a horse in the Queen's Plate, said Tidal Forces is on track for the Plate, but Tio Magico's status is less certain.

"It's exciting to have a horse that you think is going to be competitive in there," she said.

RUIDOSO

Stinebaugh pair top Rainbow

By Mary Rampellini

Trainer John Stinebaugh will saddle the fastest qualifiers from both days of trials for the Rainbow Futurity when the $1 million classic for Quarter Horses is renewed Sunday at Ruidoso Downs in New Mexico.

Jess Savin Candy was the fastest qualifier on Day 1 of the trials, and Candy Dice led all of her peers on Day 2. Despite the distinction, Stinebaugh is taking nothing for granted heading into the 400-yard finale.

"There are eight other very fast horses," Stinebaugh said. "For either one of my horses to get there and win, there can't be mistakes. You have to go over there and do it right."

Jess Savin Candy is the probable favorite on the strength of his record. He won his maiden in the Grade 1 Ruidoso Futurity in June, then came back and rolled by 1 1/4 lengths in his July 9 trial for the Rainbow. Jess Savin Candy covered 400 yards in 19.53 seconds under Francisco Calderon, who has the mount from post 8.

Stinebaugh, who trains Jess Savin Candy for Dutch Masters III, said he believes the April foal is an improving horse heading into Sunday.

"Coming into the trials, he looked readier to me than when he ran in the [Ruidoso] finals," Stinebaugh said. "The way I read him and the way I see him, he's readier now than in his [Rainbow] trial.

"Maybe I'm wrong. We'll see come Sunday afternoon. But he keeps getting bigger and better."

Jess Savin Candy stands about 16.1 hands tall and is a stout individual, Stinebaugh said.

"He is the biggest 2-year-old I've ever run," he said. "If he was a foot wide when we got here in April, he's three feet wide now. He's a lot of horse."

Jess Savin Candy is by Jess Good Candy, the same sire as Candy Dice. She won her maiden in her Rainbow trial by a length in 19.47 on July 10. It was the fastest overall qualifying time for Sunday.

"That filly has always been fast," said Stinebaugh, who trains Candy Dice for Glenda Bass.

Stinebaugh said Candy Dice is a petite filly. She will break from post 9 under Sergio Becerra Jr. and will face mostly male rivals Sunday.

"We took her to the gate this morning – she's ready," Stinebaugh said Friday. "She doesn't know she's little. She told me just this morning she was a giant killer."

Others set to start include Fdd Scout, who is undefeated in three starts. He won the $100,000 Ruidoso Juvenile in June.

Jess Savin Candy is the lone 2-year-old eligible to win the Triple Crown at Ruidoso. It's made up of the Ruidoso, Rainbow, and All American Futurities. The latter race closes out the meet in September.

Dutton looks ready to fire best shot in Irish Day Stakes

By Randy Goulding

Dutton is the one to catch and beat in the $50,000 Irish Day on Sunday at Emerald Downs. The 6 1/2-furlong dash for 3-year-olds drew nine horses and goes as the eighth race on a nine-race card that begins at 2:30 p.m. Pacific. The Irish Day shares the spotlight with the $50,000 Kent for 3-year-old fillies going the same distance in the seventh race.

Dutton, trained by Howard Belvoir, is coming off a loss for the first time in his career, but he was facing older horses in a conditioned allowance race and the final time posted by winner Windribbon of 1:07.53 was extremely fast. He will appreciate being back with his own age group, and he could be more settled with a race under his belt.

Last year, the Washington-bred son of Noosito won his first two starts, both sprints, by a combined 23 lengths. He also took them all the way going 1 1/16 miles in the $75,000 Gottstein Futurity.

Dutton was supposed to make his 3-year-old debut in the $50,000 Auburn on June 20, but he was scratched after he flipped in the starting gate. He showed his usual speed in his race on June 30, but came up empty in the stretch and ended up fourth.

"He was up against it last time," Belvoir said. "He had to go back to the starting gate a few times, so I did not get to train him the way I would have liked. He's doing well now and he's a lot fitter going into this race."

Dutton is a bit high strung, and Belvoir was worried that the large crowd that figures to show up Sunday for the Corgi races could wind him up a bit.

Dutton will break from post 7 with Jennifer Whitaker aboard.

Reed Palmer Photography/Emerald Downs

Dutton (right) ended his 2020 season with this gate-to-wire victory in the Gottstein Futurity at Emerald Downs.

With plenty of other speed in the field, the race could set up nicely for Bobby Brinkley, who will be making his first start at Emerald.

Trained by Frank Lucarelli, Bobby Brinkley will appreciate the easier company after finishing sixth in the $75,000 Wayne Hanks Memorial for Texas-bred 3-year-olds and up on June 13 at Lone Star.

The runner-up in the 6 1/2-furlong dash, Mr Money Bags, is a nine-time winner with $476,976 in earnings. He won the $245,000 Zia Park Derby in 2019 and earned Beyer Speed Figure of 90 last out for his win in an open allowance race at Lone Star.

Bobby Brinkley can stalk and could pick up the pieces if the speed falters.

The Blaine Wright-trained Top Executive came from just off the pace to win the Auburn and could be dangerous with a similar trip.

The Kent appears to be a wide-open event, with eight horses entered.

Broad Approval, based at Hastings, has the best Beyers in the field. She could be dangerous cutting back to a sprint after finishing second going around three turns for the first time in an open allowance race July 12.

The Kentucky-bred daughter of Carpe Diem races for owner-trainer Glen Todd at Hastings. She is trained at Emerald by Sandi Gann.

La Una lost for the first time when she rallied to finish third behind Ms Lynn and Camden High in the $50,000 Seattle on June 20 at Emerald. Trained by Wright, she could get up in time while making just her fourth start.

Ms Lynn, trained by Roy Lumm, is going for the hat trick after paying $37.80 for her 1 1/2-length victory in the Seattle. The Washington-bred daughter of Point Da Harbor was 17 lengths behind at the half-mile call in the six-furlong dash. Julien Couton picks up the mount from Alex Cruz, who opts to ride Blazingbellablu for trainer Charles Essex.

Blazinbellablu also is going for her third-straight win. In her latest victory, she came from a stalking position in a nonwinners-of-two or Washington-bred nonwinners-of-three allowance race on July 1.

Cloutier tough at Hastings

At Hastings, trainer Mark Cloutier has a good chance of winning the feature races on Monday and Tuesday. Post time for both days is 5 p.m. Pacific.

Monday, Coulterberry is clearly the one to beat in a nonwinners-of-three allowance race that carries a $35,000 claiming option. The classy 8-year-old does his best running late and should have plenty of speed to run at in the 6 1/2-furlong dash, which drew six horses.

Tuesday, the 6-year-old mare Under Par will try to carry her substantial speed the whole way while facing boys in a nonwinners-of-three allowance race that carries a $16,000 claiming option.

A 10-time winner from 19 starts, Under Par could be sitting on a big effort in her third start at the meet. In her last race, she got nipped at the wire by Floral in a nonwinners-of-three allowance race that carried a top claiming option of $43,500 on June 7.

Going into Monday's card there is a $149,388 carryover in the pick five at Hastings.

◗ The carryover for the pick five at Assiniboia Downs on Monday is $269,614. If the jackpot wager continues to grow, there will be a guaranteed $1 million pool on Manitoba Derby Day, Aug. 2. Following Aug. 2, there will be a $250,000-guaranteed pool for the pick five every race day at Assiniboia until it is hit or the meet ends on Sept. 15.

Plainridge Park Stakes Analysis By Derick Giwner

Sunday, July 25 at Plainridge Park

Race 7: $100,000 Clara Barton Pace

(3) LYONS SENTINEL closed very well from an impossible spot in the Dorothy Haughton on July 17 while the favorite despite post 10. She moves to a more desirable post and can win from on or off the pace. (4) ROCKNIFICENT did all the heavy lifting on the lead in the Haughton and almost lasted the entire mile. Four-year-old mare is getting better with every start as she adjusts to life versus older foes. (2) JK FIRST LADY tripped-out behind #4 last weekend and certainly deserves serious consideration, but I wouldn't play her unless the price was fair, and her morning-line favorite status might gain her too much tote attention.

Race 8: $50,900 Bert Beckwith Memorial Pace

(1) FORCE N FURY has turned into a nice $31,000 Winter Mixed Sale purchase from January, having earned over $61,000 already this year. The Mark Eaton barn is firing well here with 8 wins in 28 starts and this guy also picks up Tim Tetrick. (4) CIGARS AND PORT gets a nice driver change of his own to Andrew McCarthy. Speedy gelding is going to the front and won in this class three starts back. (2) ARTFUL WAY has also been performing very well in this company of late; dangerous trip player. (3) MAJOR LEAGUER sits at 20-1 on the morning-line, which is very enticing on a horse that has been racing in the same class as most of these and picks up Dexter Dunn for the first time.

Race 9: $250,000 Spirit of Massachusetts Trot

(1) FORBIDDEN TRADE has a distinct advantage drawing post 1 as driver Dan Dube can either fire out hard or make an early brush to the front. Either way, Dube should be able to control the race and could get away with slow fractions and steal it from the likely heavy favorite (5) MANCHEGO. The latter changed tactics last time in the Miss Versatility and it paid off with another sub 1:50 winning mile. Classy 6-year-old is a win from $3 million in her career and very well might take this race, but I expect her to come from behind, which gives the top pick a slight advantage. (6) EUROBOND got a track invitation to the race as he is the King of the Open handicap class at Plainridge. He moves into a new barn after selling in the Tattersalls Summer Mixed Sale for $205,000 last Sunday. Will he improve? Will he regress? One certainty is that he should be firing off the gate and could be sitting the pocket behind the top pick.

ANALYSIS

BEST BET: RACE 5, MISS MAMBA

FIRST RACE

TAP N GLO and TRADE SECRET arrive with experience from Kentucky for top barns and they have both already shown some potential. TAP N GLO sat behind horses professionally in her debut, before gamely chasing home the similarly well-backed winner in that spot, and gaining in her late; Cox followed a similar pattern with Let's Be Clear earlier this week - gaining 2nd on debut as the favorite in Kentucky, then improved to break maiden in second start up here. TRADE SECRET has run twice already and wasn't aggressively ridden either time despite having plenty of speed; wound up getting hooked in those races and couldn't hold at the end, though it would be hard to argue that she didn't run the best race last time; the horse to beat. SHANGHAI ESSENCE made a debut that is somewhat typical from this barn when breaking slowly and steadying to last, and the racing greenly while gaining some experience; expecting an improved effort here.

SECOND RACE

LUNA'S IN CHARGE probably comes up short a little too often, though it's not like he is ever bet so strongly to make him a disappointment; has been consistent across different surfaces and distances, and his lone turf start up here last summer was a good one while moving in tandem with Maxwell Esquire and coming away second-best. VETERANS BEACH was given a perfect trip by Rosario last time and, to his credit, he did his best with it, before proving to be no match for the improving Scuttlebuzz; tactical 5yo tries again. DR. BLUTE got very unlucky in his turf debut back in April when blocked in the stretch, and then shut off again while looking to split, before ultimately coming up short; did not run as well last time going longer but he might appreciate cutting back for this.

THIRD RACE

POP THE BUBBLY actually ran pretty well in her debut when rained off to a sloppy main track, so not that surprised that her connections gave her some chances on dirt over the winter; turf-bred filly was shut off and checked at the start, and then ran in spots while finishing second to a front-running winner in her lone start on this surface. MARVELOUS MAUDE was away last and then tried to rally wide in the stretch on debut last month at Belmont; was closing along with everyone else in that spot before coming up short; can do better. LA VICTORIA ran very well in her career debut with an excuse, then disappointed greatly over a wet track in her second start; switches to turf with some questions to answer but you'll get a price this time and she did show some ability first time out.

FOURTH RACE

EXCELLENT TIMING tipped his hand on debut when rushing up with good speed after breaking a bit slowly, only to weaken late over a tough distance; came right back to crush maidens on the lead, then dominated the Damon Runyon in his first start for this trainer; turf experiment didn't work out (though that was a very tough spot) and he ran fine last time while cutting a fast pace over a wet track; Lasix on. MOONACHIE last ran in NY in March and he ran well that day while keeping after a fast pace and prevailing; returns after a pair of shorter sprints at Finger Lakes where he held his form. TALE OF THE UNION is obviously a major player with the figures and some speed; also shows several losses at short prices; second off the layoff but might be a better price now that he is out of the Baffert barn. .

FIFTH RACE

MISS MAMBA got unlucky in her debut when failing to navigate stretch traffic and coming up short; hard to tell what happened when cut back last time

Analyst's statistics: Number of races picked, top pick winners and in parentheses, top pick finishes in the money.

SARATOGA

but she took up on the turn and lost all chance; dangerous off the claim for a trainer is 21% with a $2.44 ROI from 373 turf sprints over the past five years. HIGH SCHOOL CRUSH ran well twice over course and distance last summer before going to Belmont to post an easy maiden win; makes her second start of the year after showing speed off the layoff. HERALD ANGEL didn't have the cleanest trip when an even 4th off the layoff, then contested the pace going longer last time and paid the price; cuts back for a trainer off to a hot start at the meet.

SIXTH RACE

LEMIEUX was no match for blowout winner Happy Soul (returned to win the Astoria with an 81 Beyer) first time out, but she got bet into that filly, and also showed more speed than it may appear after getting off to a good start; stretches to six looking to build on the experience. FOUR DAWN is a homebred by 19% debut sire Nyquist and a sister to five winners from this dam already, including stablemate and debut winner Joe Frazier (88 Beyer top); has some sharp works in tow for a trainer off to a hot start at the meet. SHARED FUTURE starts for Asmussen, who has become the most reliable trainer at this meet over the past couple of years when it comes to 2yos (already 2 for 3 with juvenile first-time starters at this meet); sharp breeze from the gate last month prior to shipping up here.

SEVENTH RACE

THIEF OF HEARTS caught a sloppy track first time out and went right back to the sidelines after failing to produce a run; dropped for her return from the layoff and dominated maiden claimers from an outside, stalking position; think she'll appreciate cutting a bit for this after drifting late and getting a little tired last time. KAELY'S SISTER dropped for her dirt debut at Keeneland in April and controlled the front vs. only three others before sprinting on home with a field-best 83 Beyer; ran fine last time but was only second-best as a heavy favorite. CADEAU DE PAIX has her hands full with the top two but she is underrated and can rally if they get involved early; switches to an underrated trainer for this.

EIGHTH RACE

VALUE ENGINEERING has been rigtht there in every one of his eight starts so far, so the fact that he shows only two wins is probably a negative; that said, he has spent a lot of time going longer and he appears to be the kind of horse who needs things timed perfectly, which complicates things; second off the layoff after another good effort in a pace-dominated race last time, and he has run well without fail at Saratoga so far. FORTY UNDER hasn't won a race since breaking his maiden up her as a 2yo and then following that win up with a score in the Grade 3 Pilgrim; that nearly three-year gap since his last victory covers only nine starts (seven of those on turf); good effort off the long layoff last time in his first start for Maker, who is hot so far. OLYMPICO is another bringing a long losing streak into this race. He hasn't scored since taking the Fort Marcy impressively in his state-side debut over very boggy ground; got wired off the layoff and may be set for better as he drops slightly.

NINTH RACE

HOROLOGIST has lost two in a row as the favorite since winning the Top Flight convincingly over this distance back in April off the bench; she's a multiple stakes winner since switching to this barn but she appears to be the kind of horse that wants to be involved and doesn't appreciate getting placed over behind horses - as was the case in her two recent losses; would like to see Alvarado come out running from the rail. GOLD SPIRIT a wildcard shipping up from Chile and switching to Brown following noted improvement once stretched out at the end of last year. She stalked a soft pace before taking over at will in that Group 2 win in October, then settled away from a fast pace and cruised to become a Group 1 winner in her next start; faced colts when last seen and made a move into a solid pace before bumping and tiring in the stretch; dangerous. DUNBAR ROAD was a Grade 1 winner up here as a 3yo to complete a 4 for 5 start to her career; won twice off the layoff last year but didn't improve at all and she was no match after making a move to contention in her seasonal debut; contender but wouldn't take a short price on her.

TENTH RACE

MUBARMAJ is 2 for 3 since dropping in class and exits an easy win over a couple of these same rivals last time for $25k; still with Pletcher and clearly the one to beat. EASY SHOT was no match for the top one last time while cutting in half; off the claim for a dangerous trainer who might be set to get back on track after struggling through the spring/summer at Belmont. SOMEDAY JONES has the back races to be hard on this field if he can turn things around for Maker, who has sent out nothing but live horses at the meet so far; was no match for MUBARMAJ two back but that was in the slop.

CLOSER LOOK Homebred is by 16% juvenile debut sire Into Mischief; the dam (14-3-3-3, $79k, 73 Beyer) was a multiple dirt sprint winner; her only foal to race is 1M dirt winner Baba (8-1-1-0, $66k, 63 Beyer); the dam is a half-sister to Belmont Stakes and 2x Jockey Club Gold Cup winner Tonalist (16-7-4-2, $3.6 million); Tom Albertrani is 3-for-9 (33%, $11.34 ROI) with 2YO firsters in dirt sprints over the past 2 years, though he hadn't had much success prior to that; some of the workouts look decent for this barn, though she probably still needs a start this early in the season; watching intently.

CLOSER LOOK Has shown speed in both starts, and notably is the only runner in this field who has experience over this 6F distance; set the pace before fading behind subsequent Debutante winner Behave Virginia (2-for-2, 83 Beyer) two back; and last time she won the battle with her favored Asmussen stablemate, but lost the war as both were run down late; the Asmussen barn has come out firing at this Saratoga meet, and this filly figures to lead this group for a long way unless one of the firsters has speed; contender.

CLOSER LOOK Got an education in the debut; was bumped at the start and away last before lagging at the back of the pack, never really getting involved; didn't take any money that day, suggesting that she probably needed that start; Linda Rice is 3-for-14 (21%, $1.72 ROI) with 2YO maiden second time starters in dirt sprints over the past 5 years; this barn's youngsters tend to develop a little later; needs to take a big step forward to factor here, but at least she figures to be a price once again.

CLOSER LOOK Got a good trip in the debut, a race marred by an incident at the quarter pole as she was attempting to angle out inside of a stricken foe; she stayed on decently in the late stages to just miss rallying inside of the drifting-out winner; the 2nd dam is G3-placed sprinter Brisquette (16-4-3-4, $216k, 101 Beyer), making her dam a half-sister to G1-placed Blue Grass runner-up and Belmont Stakes 3rd-place finisher Medal Count ($480k); Brad Cox is 25-for-86 (29%, $1.41 ROI) with 2YO maiden 2nd time starters in dirt sprints over the past 5 years; needs to move forward to beat this field, but there's certainly upside; one to consider.

CLOSER LOOK $190k yearling purchase is by excellent 20% juvenile debut sire Twirling Candy; the dam (4-1-2-0, $44k, 75 Beyer) won sprinting on the dirt; she's produced a couple of minor winners sired by Kitten's Joy; the real pedigree is in the second generation, as the dam is a half-sister to G3-winning dirt router Hawaakom (62-9-12-11, $1.1 milion) as well as UAE G3 dirt winner Snaafy (7-for-27, $544k); Asmussen is 13-for-50 (26%, $2.77 ROI) with 2YO firsters in Saratoga dirt sprints over the past 5 years; sports that patented quick gate work for this barn back in June at Keeneland, though the recent turf workout is a little confusing; contender.

CLOSER LOOK Homebred is by 19% juvenile debut sire Nyquist; the dam (17-3-3-4, $286k, 91 Beyer) was a stakes-winner on synth who was 2nd by a nose in the G1 Santa Anita Oaks on synth, and also G2-placed on dirt; all 5 of his dam's foals are winners, topped by dirt sprinter Joe Frazier (8-2-0-1, $92k, 88 Beyer); Brad Cox is 1-for-11 (9%, $0.81 ROI) with 2YO firsters in Saratoga dirt sprints over the past 5 years; those gate works at Keeneland are pretty quick and this one is bred to be a runner; also have to be encouraged by the Cox barn's strong start to the meet; dangerous.

CLOSER LOOK Broke decently but couldn't match strides with impressive winner Happy Soul early or late; that filly returned to win the Astoria by a similar margin in her next start with an 81 Beyer; this gal was beaten a long way and there wasn't much behind her; though, she obviously has a right to improve with racing; the dam was G2-placed on dirt, and the dam is a half-sister to G1 turf winner Diamondrella ($825k) as well as G1-placed dirt sprinter Bonnie Blue Flag ($259k); Mark Casse is 3-for-26 (12%, $0.93 ROI) with maiden 2nd time starters in dirt sprints at Saratoga over 5 years; prefer some others.

CLOSER LOOK Was no match for Schuylerville runner-up Mainstay (71 Beyer) in her debut at Monmouth, but she took a step forward at Belmont last time; didn't attract much tote support that day, but she put in a strong effort, closing well to get on terms with the leader before hanging a bit late; she's obviously improving, but she still comes in a little light on speed figures and now finds herself in what appears to be the stronger division of the two maiden events on this card; Irad Ortiz abandons her for the Brown trainee next door; get the feeling some new faces are likely to usurp her here.

CLOSER LOOK $195k yearling purchase is by 9% juvenile debut sire Union Rags; the dam (7-5-0-2, $297k, 84 Beyer) won 5 races in a row on dirt, including 3 stakes on the Maryland circuit; all 4 of the dam's foals to race are winners, topped by minor stakes-winning dirt sprinter Where Paradise Lay (20-4-4-5, $203k, 88 Beyer), as well as allowance-winning dirt sprinter Whispering Pines (9-2-1-2, $111k, 85 Beyer); Chad Brown is 12-for-69 (17%, $1.37 ROI) with 2YO firsters in Saratoga dirt sprints over the past 5 years; doesn't look like the most impressive worktab on paper, but the last gate drill was a good one, as she bested a workmate and galloped out well; one to consider.

CLOSER LOOK Originally sold for $130k as a weanling before going for $375k at OBS March following a 10 1/5 workout; Ghostzapper is a 10% juvenile debut sire; the dam (14-2-6-2, $119k, 77 Beyer) earned both of her victories routing on turf, racing exclusively on that surface; this is her first foal to race; Christophe Clement is 3-for-17 (18%, $1.81 ROI) with 2YO firsters in dirt sprints at Saratoga over 5 years; broke off ahead of a very rank workmate in that most recent training track drill, but was always going well; looks to have some ability, but she finds herself in a spot that contains a few other potentially precocious firsters.

CLOSER LOOK $50k yearling purchase is by Cross Traffic, who wins with 7% of his juvenile debut starters; the dam was winless in 4 starts but she ran well in all of them while racing on dirt; she's produced 6 winners from 7 foals to race, topped by G1-placed dirt sprinter Killybegs Captain (26-7-5-3, $572k, 99 Beyer), who raced for these same connections; John Terranova is 2-for-20 (10%, $1.13 ROI) with 2YO firsters in dirt sprints over the past 5 years; the works look decent, but she figures to need a start.

CLOSER LOOK $90k yearling purchase is by 16% juvenile debut sire Jimmy Creed; the dam (15-2-2-1, $70k, 55 Beyer) was a minor dirt sprint winner at lower levels; 2 foals to race have both never hit the board; the dam is a half-sister to Perfect Shower (20-3-2-2, $419k), who won the Breeders' Stakes in Canada going 12F on turf and was stakes-placed going as far as 1 5/8 miles; Al Stall is 13-for-73 (18%, $0.99 ROI) with 2YO first time starters in dirt sprints over the past 5 years; this barn's runners often need a start, and the pedigree suggests longer may be preferable.

CLOSER LOOK Got very unlucky off the layoff up here last summer when buried in traffic in the stretch, then got some redemption in his next start while closing down Danfusi on a rated pace; outran his odds while cutting the pace in the Belmont Derby in October and continued to hold his good form with a Gulfstream win to close out 2020; second off the layoff after speeding and tiring over a wet track in the Kingston.

CLOSER LOOK MTO entrant continues to hold form for Rudy and his speed will play if he gets to run, though this distance is going to be a stretch for him; he did run well over this trip and around two turns at Aqueduct three back; the rail was probably the place to be that day but this gelding went a very fast pace before settling for 2nd.

CLOSER LOOK 6yo still looking for a second stateside win after scoring pretty impressively in the Fort Marcy way back in May of 2019; has kept strong company along the way while trying different distances and he is twice Grade 2-placed since that Fort Marcy; second off the layoff after an even performance behind a front-running winner last time.

CLOSER LOOK Landed in a pretty tough race off the long layoff last month and rallied in a pace-dominated race before coming up just short; of course, has now come up just short in four of his last five starts while short prices in most of those races; major contender and like him over this distance.

CLOSER LOOK Shipper rallied into a pace and just got up two back, then sat off an even pace and couldn't make a late impact last time; has apparently lost his speed recently but would benefit from more aggressive tactics in this spot.

CLOSER LOOK Broke his maiden first time turf up here as a 2yo, after which he came right back to win the Pilgrim; that was back in 2018 and, unfortunately for him, he has not won since; that losing streak stretches to nearly three years but only represents only nine starts; stretches out with some speed after a solid effort in his first start for Maker and should be going early.

CLOSER LOOK Underrated 5yo made a move to contention after a good trip and dead-heated with Value Engineering over this distance two back; went longer last time vs. class-dropping Rockemperor and ran well again; won twice up here last summer and has held his form since then; contender at a fair price.

CLOSER LOOK Lightly-raced 4yo is relatively new to turf but has certainly improved since the switch while winning twice, including his surface debut over this distance; easily wired that field on an even pace off the layoff last month; interesting if he can progress one more time.

CLOSER LOOK broke his maiden up here on debut and scored over this distance last summer at Belmont after a perfect trip; went on from there to run well in two tougher spots, then was slightly favored in that cavalry charge at Keeneland on Breeders' Cup Weekend; Pletcher excels off of layoffs and this colt could still have some upside.

CLOSER LOOK She was underrated for her prior trainers and has become a three-time stakes winner since being transferred to Mott, with two of those stakes wins coming at this distance; her last two efforts have not been good at short prices; watching those races, it seems that she might not be a horse than is all that happy racing in behind horses; would like to see Junior come out running from the rail as she is fast enough to employ those tactics and her best races have come when she in involved early.

CLOSER LOOK Chilean import switches to the Chad Brown barn and was in good form when last seen; she appeared to really improve when stretched out late last year to go back-to-back in group races; she had a fast pace to attack in the Group 2 win in October, and she rolled by that field before drawing off; sat closer to a slow pace in the Group 1 Alberto Solari Magnasco and was similarly impressive while taking over at will; tried to stretch it all the way out vs. colts when last seen and actually ran well in that race while making a move into a strong pace and tiring in the stretch; interesting but demand a price,

CLOSER LOOK Looked good at the beginning of her career while starting out 4 for 5, including wins in the Mother Goose and the Grade 1 Alabama; she won two more stakes last year but vs. weaker fields and her figures did not improve at all; returned from the layoff in a Churchill Grade 1 and did her best while proving to be no match for Shedaresthedevil, among others; can win here but would need her to be a pretty big price in order to reengage.

CLOSER LOOK Versatile filly is a stakes winner on turf and dirt and is also Grade 1-placed on both surfaces; she has speed to bring to this race and the distance is not going to be an issue, assuming she can work out the right pace/trip; was no match for Letruska last time but let's give her some credit for not just conceding there and actually trying to make the streaking mare race; not out of this.

CLOSER LOOK Last year's CCA Oaks runnerup got a layoff following her no-show effort in the Alabama; she is 3 for 3 since starting back this year and defeated Horologist over this distance last time while sitting a perfect trip; probably has to improve again to beat this field but she is eligible to do so and her versatile running style is a positive.

CLOSER LOOK Consistent mare has hit the board in all nine starts and took a Grade 3 over this distance and around two turns at Aqueduct at the end of 2020; she ran in this race last year and, while she was a gaining second to Letruska at the end, it's worth noting that the winner went a wicked pace to set it up; good try on her 2021 debut but she had a good trip and the momentum in the stretch before coming up short.

ANALYSIS

BEST BET: RACE 3, WOLFHAND

FIRST RACE

Another quick 3-day Gulf weekend ends with a 10-race card that starts at 12:50p ET and with another SoFla forecast of a 50-percent (or so) possibility of Sunday showers, but who knows when and how heavy the rain may or may not come down; we'll go ahead and make selections here for all 5 turf races remaining ON (and with fingers crossed). Given the 7.5-furlong distance of an opener scheduled for turf, let's give OVERTHEBLUESKY the edge with those two decent sprints serving as valuable foundation as she faces some okay-looking firsters; the second try 30 days ago seems especially useful toward this. BLAME THE VETS is one of those firsters with the right kind of credentials; don't really like that Glen Hill and Proctor offer the homebred filly for a tag right away, given how well they get to know all their stock before presenting them to the public; still, this isn't a very tough ask, and she might well be good enough if she can trip out from the hedge. CAPETOWN CANDY hails from a barn (Yates) that tends to do its best work with 2yos.

SECOND RACE

KHOCU keeps tip-toeing down the class ladder, and one day the 3yo gelding might finally catch the right spot; this all-Wilensky production hasn't exactly set the world on fire, but he has been semi-competitive and quite consistent in his 5 starts, all here at Gulf; good as any in an uninspiring opening leg to the early pick-4. Just to his inside, MULSANNE RUN adds blinkers and drops subtly when going turf-to-dirt for the runaway leading trainer at this spring-summer meet; poor form aside, you have to know fans will be backing this one on the Saffie factor alone. GIGANTIC stands to finally make himself known as Louie throws up his hands when dropping him in from a trio of disappointing MSW tries for this low tag.

THIRD RACE

Not all that often you see a last-out mdn.-claiming winner prevail right back for the same price at the N2L level, especially when switching surfaces the way WOLFHAND is doing here for Sancal, but thinking the trainer has been really wanting to get this dude on the grass, and now here he is, fresh from a good-looking tally at odds-on in an off-turf mile following a layoff of nearly a year; thinking a repeat at a decent tote price might be in store with the move to grass; let's just call it the day's best. CALL BROS is the obvious one to overcome after Orseno called a timeout following that 5/15 bummer; Generazio homebred has been a real threat to get through this condition at this $12.5k level for quite some time now. EXPRESS PHAROAH gets cut in half by Barboza after two subpar tries as a betting favorite; colt is clearly struggling to live up to his potential.

FOURTH RACE

Even on the slight turn-back to these 6.5 panels, looking for ELUSIVE UNCAPTURED to be early here when loading-n-going from the open-air outer box; was no match for the obvious favorite here, MIZZEN, when they clashed under very similar conditions here four Sundays ago, but this could unfold in different fashion, with perhaps Mizzen's hand being forced with the rail draw; seems worth calling for a mild upset given how Mizzen will be such a short price after that terrific off-the-bench effort for Avila in the key 6/27 race. Either of the uncoupled Sano duo of CHECK TWICE and COMMISSIO can play minor roles.

FIFTH RACE

4yos assigned to far outer gates look like the top threats in a very contentious $12.5k 'beaten' turf route that kicks off a 20-cent Rainbow 6 (R5-10) with "spread" written all over it. Slight nod to COMPLEX SYSTEM on the drop for Louie; that 3-back score vs. state-bred starters was done the right way, and although his last two prettty much stunk, his tractable ability might have him in the hunt today when going this extra furlong. Right alongside, CALABASH tries redeeming as a beaten odds-on favorite when making his second start under the Saffie banner; ability to succeed at this level seems there. EASY STRIDE ought be forgiven for the off-turf debacle four weekends ago, while fringe players such as FREEDOM'S FLIGHT (blinkers on), KING OTTOKAR and HONORABLE probably shouldn't be left off a serious ticket.

Analyst's statistics: Number of races picked, top pick winners and in parentheses, top pick finishes in the money.

GULFSTREAM

SIXTH RACE

Still tbd whether Hamm was caught with his hand in the cookie jar, but the sizable class jump off that encouraging debut seems worth trying by Braddy, given how well CHESS NOT CHECKERS ran in that neck defeat for $25k; outside post can afford this filly and Panici a clean trip as she looks to pay for herself right away in this opening link to the 50-cent late pick-5. ROSY APPLE is a speed-bred type being unveiled by a stable (Spatz) that tends to get some quick ones from Monarch; toteboard might have the best clues in regard to her chances. CHROME RACER evidently was bought privately by Louie following that just-miss debut defeat down Louisiana way; obvious consideration with something similar.

SEVENTH RACE

Make that 8 straight defeats for LEYENDA since her bottom-level mdn.-claiming surprise during the championship meet, but don't despair, as help could be on way in the form of the vulnerable opposition in this N2L-$12.5k dash; right kind of trip could unfold in front of her, given how the 3 fillies to her inside all figure to scamper early, with Pretzel also like to add fuel to that fire; a couple of runner-up finishes by Leyenda in similar spots say she's able given the right breaks. INCLUDE THE BEAST, a beaten last-out favorite, perhaps is best of the inside draws, while BAHAMIAN BEAUTY, as with the top pick, is eligible to be running on late; the breakthrough score 3 weekends ago graded out weakly but it seems like she's getting her act together for a capable barn (Varsi).

EIGHTH RACE

Something of a kitchen-sink treatment been applied to each of the top two picks in this mid-level mdn.-claiming turf route as LAZARETTO adds blinkers after undergoing 'the unkindest cut' since he was regrouped by Zerpa following the late-May claim, while ASYMPTOMATIC also was gelded and now adds Lasix since being transferred into the Fawkes barn; no surprise whatsoever if both/either run better than they ever have; nod to Lazaretto in no small part because of the Zerpa first-off-claim stat (32 percent strike rate), even considerating how difficult it is to improve off Saffie. AL HILAL was sharpened in a sprint four Sundays ago and could find himself closer than usual when back down for the quarter.

NINTH RACE

Seems like Pete reached out and took COREY at an opportune moment as the filly had the look of eagles in dominating that June 19 'beaten' race for prior connections; outer post should afford Zayas and this gray fllly the right kind of stalking trip here as she seeks to keep heading in the right direction. BABY LION goes for the optional $25k after finishing second to the top pick in the key 6/27 race; another Saffie contender in play here. AMERICAN OF COURSE knocked out a couple of preliminary conditions in quick order for O'Connell and now takes on tougher on the requisite raise.

TENTH RACE

Careful early rating from Panici may be the key to victory for MR. AXEL as the headstrong gelding now gets every chance to knock out his N2L condition on the slight class drop for the ever-capable Nihei; rail draw and the slight turn-back from a mile could have him sitting on go after saving all the ground on both turns. MONY comes something of a sleeper, even with that glaring 1-for-18 mark; referring to that two-back runner-up finish at this same level could put him in the thick of this. DILIGENT has been competitive with similar types and might appreciate having been away 10 weeks.

BEST BET: RACE 3, FROSTED BLUE

FIRST RACE

KRATOS is cross-entered in the Irish War Cry Stakes on Saturday, a statebred stakes race where he has a legit shot, and that fact clearly illustrates he'll be a handful if he runs in this maiden race after that solid try in his first try going long in his latest; if he's able to shake loose this time around he is unlikely to be run down late. DUQUESNE was well off the top pick on the wire last time but he did run into some traffic trouble; could prove dangerous with another step forward in his third career start. CASH KID gets back on the turf for the first time since February, and while his grass Beyers are light he may be an improved horse at this stage of his career.

SECOND RACE

CRYSTAL ORB will need to step it up in terms of Beyers to win this but she should at least get a very favorable set up here, as the pace should be quick and contested; she broke her maiden last time out and she had to overcome the race flow to do it, making her an upgrade candidate given a quick, contested pace up front. LA CASTIGLIONE has the best Beyers in the field, and she comes off a pair of runner-up finishes, including in her route debut last time; will face more pressure this time but has to be respected. SUCCESSFUL LEGACY goes long on the dirt for the first time in her first start off the claim by trainer Tom Clark and may find this to be his best game, if he can rate off the pace and make one run.

THIRD RACE

FROSTED BLUE jumped up and ran a big race in her turf debut last time, getting the place at a big price, and that was a very fast race for the class and distance, with the winner posting a Beyer well above par; clearly tough here if she can run to that effort in her second try on this surface. MY MAGGIE MOO was off the board in her first two starts on the grass but now she sprints for the first time, and this may be her best game; trainer Pat McBurney does well enough with turf sprinters to make her a threat. ASYENA is from the same barn and makes her turf debut here, and she has the best Beyers in the field, albeit on dirt; kin to Auldwood Lane, who was a stakes-placed turf sprinter, and she figures to be the one to beat here, perhaps at an underlaid price.

FOURTH RACE

SOUPER ENERGIZER usually turfs, and in fact his lone career win came on the grass, but he ran well enough on the synthetic main tracks at Woodbine and Presque Isle Downs to suggest he'll handle dirt; drops in class for trainer Kelly Breen, who has good numbers with horses making this surface switch. EL AFORTUNADO was well behind on the wire but he was against the race flow in his first try against non-winners of three; has license to improve given a better race flow, which seems likely. CURLIN'S THRILL isn't likely to run to that 78 Beyer he posted in that maiden win last time out but he merits respect off that figure.

FIFTH RACE

SERVICE WITH HONOR tried to rate off the pace last time, and he weakened late, but he set the pace before tiring two back, and he may find himself on the lead in this one as well, due to the relative lack of speed in this field; those last two were his first tries on the grass but both were races with final times that were above par for the class, distance and surface. FATIMA'S BLESSING is the main danger late, and if he gets an honest pace he figures to be tough to stave off late under Paco Lopez; note trainer Joan Milne's record with turf and route runners. HARD COUNT is hard to take as a win candidate given his overall record but he does make his Monmouth debut and his Beyers fit well with the locals.

Analyst's statistics: Number of races picked, top pick winners and in parentheses, top pick finishes in the money.

SIXTH RACE

BUSTER BRUNO is kin to eight winners, including a couple of stakes winners in Whirlin Curlin and Lexington Street, and he has a couple of works that suggest he has some speed; expecting him to come out running for trainer Kathleen DeMasi. JUST LEO has speed and the rail and will take them as far as he can on the lead, assuming he gets away cleanly from the fence; lots of potential for this son of Poseidon's Warrior, who is a full brother to multi-millionaire Firenze Fire. THE GHOST OF N Y is the first starter from the dam, who won two races, both dirt sprints; trainer Daniel Velazquez does well with firsters and with 2-year-olds in general.

SEVENTH RACE

PORTAL ONE makes his grass debut but he's kin to Princess Trina, who won a couple of turf sprints, and trainer Hugh McMahon wins at a good rate (18%) in short races on the green; figures to offer some value given his inexperience on this surface. NOTHING BETTER may be the one to beat, as he has posted some decent figures under these circumstances; he's wide but he has tactical speed, which should be enhanced with today's addition of blinkers. SAND DUNE has speed and the rail and figures to be sent hard from this inside post; big threat if able to get clear in the opening stages.

EIGHTH RACE

JUAN BOLY gets back on the main track and this could be his best surface; he was third two back in his last try on dirt and that was a very good effort, as he had to make a premature move into a controlled pace there. WENDIGO was off the board in his last few but he was against the race flow in all three of his 2021 starts, including that last one, which featured an exacta comprised of two of the speeds in the field; needs pace but given an honest tempo he has room to take a big step forward. LARGE is one of the likely pacesetters and he'll be involved from the start under jockey Jose Ferrer; Beyers put him on the short list of contenders.

NINTH RACE

DRILLOMATIC is easily forgiven for that dull try in his latest, which was not only against better but it was on the dirt, which he does not seem to improve; he caught the eye with a nice late run two back behind subsequent next-out winner Projected and he can run them all down in the lane today given a clean trip and an honest pace up front. SMALL HOPE was no threat as the favorite in his latest but he's down in class for this and he's a strong fit on his best figures; logical enough, though he could be overbet on the drop into a claimer and due to the presence of Paco Lopez. HONORABLE HERO is wide but he does have speed and he may be quick enough to shake loose in the opening stages; threat for a part under those circumstances.

TENTH RACE

GOLDEN TONE takes the blinkers off for trainer Jane Cibelli, who has won with seven of 25 such runners (28%) over the past five years; he's been away since May but he has worked well toward this return, and Cibelli also excels with horses off this type of layoff. MR. BRIGGS is obviously the most likely winner here, as he has a clear Beyer edge and proven speed; likely prohibitive favorite could face some pressure from MY BROTHER NEIL, or others, and that could soften him up some. FAN CLUB also could show more speed in his first start going two turns, and trainer Kelly Breen does well with stretch-outs; could offer some value if the favorite is in fact overbet.

CLOSER LOOK: 5-year-old finished behind Kratos and Duquesne in his first start of the year and he does figure to move forward with a race behind him; however, he has had his fair share of chances while the top pair are lightly raced and should have more upside; he has a few races in his past that would put him in the mix and could work his way into the exotics with the right kind of trip.

CLOSER LOOK: Despite being a maiden he looked like a contender in the $95K Irish War Cry on Saturday; his connections opted for the easer spot and he will be tough to handle if he runs anywhere near as well as he did in his second start; the 73 Beyer Speed Figure he received for his runner-up finish stands out, he came back with a bullet work July 8, and he will be making his first start for Sweezy who is having a strong meet; horse that beat him in his latetst is the 3-1 second choice in the Irish War Cry so we can see how that race turns out on Saturday; the obvious pick at what will be a very low price.

CLOSER LOOK: He took a nice step forward in his second start and he appeared to be full of run when he got stuck behind the leaders on the rail on the stretch turn; he probably could have been in the mix a bit sooner don't be surprised to see a more aggressive ride by Laprida; he will have to make up the 7 lengths he finished behind Kratos, but he looks like the main threat to the top pick.

CLOSER LOOK: He wasn't much of a factor in his debut but he was sprinting and his breeding suggests he wants more distance; how he will handle turf is another matter; sire just 1 for 20 with first-time turfers; dam won 3 routes but went 0 for 4 on turf; sibs have 7 wins between them but none on grass; Huston has strong numbers with second-time starters -18% the past five years and a $3.65 ROI with second-time starting maidens - but not sure this is what this guy really wants to do.

CLOSER LOOK: She was was all out in her win over $12.5K maidens and she will need to improve on the 33 Beyer Speed Figure she received; mom was a stakes winner going 1 1/8 miles on turf and her sibs have won 8 routes between them so she should be okay going around two turns the first time and she does get in light; nonetheless, others look more attractive.

CLOSER LOOK: Another one coming off her maiden win but at least she won for fun and it came at this distance; she is moving in a positive direction and she is a half-sister to Paige Anne who placed in a couple of Grade 3's as a 3-year-old last year so she could have some upside; facing winners first time is never easy, though, and she will need a Beyer boost to contend in this spot.

CLOSER LOOK: Second from Gonzalez is taking the plunge and will appreciate the easier company; horse that beat her two back received a 74 Beyer for her victory in a first-level allowance race with a $50K claiming option in her next start at Indiana Grand; runner-up in her latest received a 78 Beyer for her win on turf in her next start at Delawere; this gal could be gone if she gets her head in front early; she will have to deal with other speed but she has to be considered a serious contender. .

CLOSER LOOK: She forced an honest pace before finishing third going 7 furlongs in her latest at Belmont in a $16K N2L so she could be the one they have to run down as she tries two turns for the first time; mom's lone win came going long and her only older sib is a 2-time route winner so she should be okay at the distance; speed breaking directly to her left could make her task difficult, though. –Randy Goulding

CLOSER LOOK: 5-year-old is sitting on a win with 4-straight runner-up finishes and she figures to move forward following another solid effort in her first start this year; see Expect to Be Ready for sire stats; dam was a 3-time sprint winner over the main track here but never tried turf; this gal's half-sister Auldwood Lane,also trained by McBurney, has a 3-3-2 record from 9 starts in turf sprints and was the runner-up in a couple of stakes races on this course; easy to imagine she will thrive running on the green stuff the first time; contender.

CLOSER LOOK: Her best race was a third-place finish at 87-1 going this distance on this course in her final start last year and the horse that won the race received an 80 Beyer when she just missed in a first-level allowance race at Belmont in her next start; this gal showed some speed before fading in her first outing this year in a $25K maiden claimer on the main track, should appreciate getting back on turf, and figures to move forward in her second start back; don't think she is the winner but she could stick around long enough to be part of the exotics.

CLOSER LOOK: Second from McBurney improved in her latest but she was going a middle distance and she was one paced the whole way so not sure this is what she wants to do; she is also the first foal to race out of a mare whose lone win came going 1 3/8 miles on turf at Saratoga so she is probably going to need a lot more distance before she's ready to contend in a serious manner; passing.

CLOSER LOOK: Main track only has been working fast for Breen who the past tive years has a solid 20% strike rate and $2.36 with horses debuting in maiden special weight races; Quality Road 13% with first-time starters; this is the first foal out of a mare who was unraced; her dam won twice with the wins going long and short; she could make a big impact if she gets to go. –Randy Goulding

CLOSER LOOK: He moves back to the main track following an okay effort in a MSW race for Florida-breds at Gulfstream on May 1; just one horse coming out of the race has won since and that came in a $35K maiden claimer washed off the lawn; this guy rallied to finish second when he debuted on dirt but that was a pretty weak group; too; on the positive side are the strong numbers Cibilli has with horses coming back from this kind of break and with horses taking the blinkers off; consider for the exotics.

CLOSER LOOK: He did not make much of an impact in his debut at Churchill but one of the horses that dead-heated for second received a 97 Beyer for his win in a MSW race at Saratoga in his next start so it was a pretty salty group; he has been working nicely over the local surface and will be making his first start for Breen who has solid numbers in all the relevant categories; dam only won sprinting but lone sib is a route winner on turf so he should be fine with the added yardage; contender.

CLOSER LOOK: Easy to ignore his latest as he was trying turf for the first time but he went into the race off a dull effort in a MSW race for NY-breds; he seems to be going in the wrong direction after a coule of decent efforts against statebreds at Aqueduct in Jan. and Feb., plus, it looks like he wants to be involved early and he is going to have a hard time keeping up with Mr. Briggs who looks pretty tough in this spot; he will appreciate being back on dirt and figures to move forward in his second start back; nonethelss, others look more attractive.

CLOSER LOOK: Medaglia d'Oro 11% with first-time starters; dam was unraced; all 3 sibs to race are winners the best being the Grade 1 winning sprinter Book Review who also won a minor stakes going 1 1/16 miles at Belmont and finished second in a couple of Grade 2's at the same distance at Santa Anita; Breen can have them ready to roll and the past five years has a 24% strike rate and $5.09 ROI with horses debuting in MSW routes; if there is going to be an upset it will probably come from here.

ANALYSIS

BEST BET: RACE 5, ENGLISH CONQUEROR

FIRST RACE

KITTEN'S SOLUTION was second in a key optional starter in his season opener, which was won by a rival who subsequently finished a close third in an N2X/optional claimer. The hard-knocking veteran rarely runs a bad one, and should take some beating with that tightener under his girth. TRANQUILITY BASE beat NW3 rivals in his comeback on the Tapeta. He was two-for-three with a second on the grass last year. MAS CHIKILIN prevailed in a front-end battle before ending up a close second for $10K in his return.

SECOND RACE

SILENT DIXIE faded from second to third in both of her races at the meet. The lightly-raced 6yo appears to have found a field that she can handle here under regular rider Moran. OUT ATTHE SPEEDWAY beat two next-out winners when graduating over $15K maidens three weeks ago. ASHA IRONBORN was a disappointing fourth after stumbling at the break in her latest, but she could handle the rest.

THIRD RACE

DEJAS TOO was out of the money after a wide trip last time in a good Tapeta sprint won by probable Woodbine Oaks favorite Lorena. She graduated on the inner course in her lone turf try, and should make some noise in this main turf route with that tuneup out of the way. CALL HER JOEY ran well in both of her outings at the meet on the main course, albeit against easier. She figures to be a speed threat under regular rider Wenc. HIDDEN IDENTITY got wiped out at the break before closing for second in her latest on the Tapeta, when claimed by Casse on behalf of top owner Gary Barber.

FOURTH RACE

SHEDAT wired $25K NW2 rivals in her comeback going seven-eighths on the Tapeta. She has some inner turf experience, and could take some catching with Gallardo taking over for Attard—they combined to win with Amalfi Sky on Thursday, Gallardo's first mount at the meet. COURT RETURN, a stakes winner over this course and the runner-up in last year's G1 E.P. Taylor, is an unbelievable fit in this NW3 OS/$40K event. She's dropping out of graded stakes company off a layoff, and will be a short price while being reunited with Fukumoto and Lasix. STORMY DERBY DAY defeated three next-out winners when beating $20K NW2 stock in March at Gulfstream.

FIFTH RACE

ENGLISH CONQUEROR was competitive against the likes of stakes winner Belichick and Town Cruise in his two appearances at the meet, and appears to have found an N1X field here that he can handle here. RELIABILITY was a slow-starting fourth behind the to pick three weeks ago on the Tapeta. He was previously in solid turf form at Gulfstream. FINALIST and BODE'S TIPSY are candidates for the lower rungs of the exotics.

SIXTH RACE

PIVEN won a tough $25K claimer in his July 1 seasonal bow while earning an 81 Beyer, which isn't far off the Beyer par of 83 for this $40K class. Drexler has good stats right off the claim. FORESTER'S TURN is switching from turf to the Tapeta for his second start off the bench, and could get back on track. GIGANTIC BREEZE should be along to pick up some of the pieces if he gets some pace to chase.

WOODBINE

SEVENTH RACE

ADMIRALTY PIER ran big in two of his three starts this year, and had lots of valid excurses when up the course two back in the G3 Louisville at Churchill, where he unraveled after shipping from Keeneland. He could go all the way in this overnight stakes in the manner of his recent allowance/optional-claiming score here under Bahen. MARCH TO THE ARCH should be favored off a good second on the Tapeta behind 2020 Canadian Horse of the Year Mighty Heart. He took the G2 King Edward over this course last year, before a troubled second in the G1 Woodbine Mile. BELICHICK, victorious in the restricted Breeders' Stakes last fall, was a determined winner of a recent N1X on the Tapeta. Use him underneath in the exotics, along with THEREGOESJOJO.

EIGHTH RACE

HALF LIT had worked nicely before missing the break during his non-competitive debut against OS/$40K maidens. He deserves a mulligan in this easier spot with blinkers on. BUTTERONMYTIE is also dropping off a dull opener, and the half-brother to stakes-placed sprinters Kid Sparkle and Silver Rocket could wake up. COLTONS DREAM is coming off an improved run, and could join the fray with Bridgmohan replacing the suspended Salles.

NINTH RACE

SWEET SERENADE made a bid into serious contention before flattening out to third in her seven-furlong opener. The daughter of Tonalist is bred to run on, and could make the grade in this 1 1/16-mile maiden special with Wilson back aboard. BEQUIA is eligible to show more than she did in her return in a maiden special that contained one next-out winner. WHO SAYS has some turf breeding, and wouldn't be much of a surprise with Nicholls replacing Wilson.

TENTH RACE

NEVAEH'S VALENTINE was surprisingly empty in his season opener vs. $25K opposition, but the classy veteran might have needed the race, and could prevail on the drop to a new low in this $15K seller. FORESTER'S DESTINY was a wide seventh in a key turf sprint in his comeback. AMBERWOOD is moving out to a suitable distance for his third start after a sabbatical.

ELEVENTH RACE

BALLROOMS OF MARS has worked well for her first start since a non-effort in the Oct. 25 Wonder Where Stakes. She's tagged for the first time here for $40K, and could put it all together while being reunited with Wilson. CARPE HORSESHOE is descending from maiden special company to a logical spot for her third start back. MELROSE STAR is debuting with a blend of speed and stamina in her pedigree, for leading trainer Casse. JOKERS RUN has a race going short on the main track under her girth.

CLOSER LOOK: Seemingly found his niche on the grass last year when scoring twice on the main course, to go along with a second on the inner layout; defeated NW3 rivals in his season opener on the Tapeta, and is a good fit in this optional starter from a Beyer perspective; Kimura really gets along well with the strapping son of Tapit.

ANALYSIS

BEST BET: RACE 5, SUKI

FIRST RACE

BOBBY BO is training very well, as if he can amends for his forgettable debut four months ago. Favored at odds-on, he flashed brief speed and backed up without a visible alibi. He worked twice afterward, went two months without a work, but now returns with a strong recent tab including a solo drill July 19 that appeared longer than the official distance of five furlongs (viewed on XBTV.com). Outside post a benefit for 'BO, who looks ready to fire. AFFABLE also returns from a layoff. Runner-up three starts last fall winter and winter, he adds blinkers for his comeback and posted a bullet gate work over the Del Mar track last week. WHO'S THE STAR has a recency edge over the top pair, he finished second in a relatively fast maiden race a month ago at Los Alamitos. Tough inside post, however.

SECOND RACE

If the blistering gate drill this week by DRINK THE WIND is legit (bullet :46.20), the colt can wire these maiden 2yos. Trainer Peter Miller is 9-for-29 with 2yo special-weight dirt firsters at DMR (summer-fall combined, five years). 'WIND could be quickest in this field. MURRAY is one of three trained by Bob Baffert, he outworked a stablemate in a team drill last Sunday (same work time, but MURRAY "won" the work). He is comfortably drawn near the outside, and ready to fire. SUMTER has shown precocity in works for trainer Richard Mandella; the son of War Front is yet another that looks "live" first out. His gate drill July 11 at Santa Anita was solid. Inside post an obvious challenge for a first-time starter. CARBONITE adds blinkers after a modest debut third. He is trained by Baffert, whose BAROSSA is the colt MURRAY worked better than last weekend.

THIRD RACE

Trouble-prone GATOR SHINING gets the call in this $50k claiming turf sprint, the lowest level he has run at. The five-furlong distance poses a challenge for the late-runner, though he won a maiden race at the distance here last summer rallying from midpack. If he can somehow avoid habitual trouble (off slow, shuffled, steadied), he can win from behind. He has run well against better company. HOT BOX is pure speed, also dropping in class for his first start in nearly three months. Problem is, at least three others to his inside employ the same up-front style. 'BOX might be the speed of the speed, and he is one of only a pair in the field with three career wins. The other three-time winner is front-runner EXHALTING, who adds Lasix after stopping badly his last two starts. He chased a suicidal pace last time in a stakes race vs. older, and now drops in for a claim tag vs. 3yos.

FOURTH RACE

Seven-time winner ALEXANDROS was claimed from a sharp $25k claiming win in Kentucky, and makes his California debut for trainer Jeff Mullins as the one to beat. He has tactical speed for a pressing trip; his speed figures are close to par for this $32k claiming level. LITTLEBITAMEDAL, a horse-for-course stretch-runner, drops from a pair of highly rated N1X/optional claiming sprints. He won at DMR in 2018 and 2020, and will roll late. BIBLEMAN might be the speed of the field. He was claimed for $25k from a runner-up finish at Lone Star by Todd Fincher, who is 4-for-12 first-off-the-claim the past five years. Although shippers from LS historically underperform at DMR, that might be changing this season. Fincher-trained 2yo filly Smash Ticket, from LS, crushed a maiden special-weight here last weekend. MAJOR CABBIE goes route to sprint after a better-than-looked wide-trip fourth at two turns.

DEL MAR

FIFTH RACE

The improving SUKI merits "best bet" status based on outstanding Kentucky form since switching to turf. She followed her decisive maiden-75 victory with a sharp second in a starter allowance. The undefeated filly she lost to won a N1X next out. SUKI remains at the starter allowance level; Midwest trainer Matt Shirer is 10-for-16 with turf-route favorites the past five years. LITTLE MISS ELLIE switches surfaces after a series of solid dirt efforts. The uncertainties are two turns (she lost ground late both routes) and turf. Progeny of the sire Richard's Kid have won 16 percent of turf routes (11 percent is average). VIAZAR returns from an eight-month layoff with proven DMR form. Five turf starts here produced four seconds and a third, although comebackers from this stable tend to race into shape rather than fire first start back. Lightly raced DESIE DELIGHT is improving each start; her recent runner-up was better than it looks. She pressed the pace, made the lead, then got collared by a filly that rallied from last.

SIXTH RACE

Not sure if SAULS CALL can be trusted stretching to five and a half furlongs, because he backed up both recent starts at five. But he drops slightly from Cal-bred MSW to Cal-bred maiden-claiming, and has the top figures in the field. Tepid choice, with an up-front trip. THIRSTY CHAPO finished five lengths clear of third in a promising debut at this level. Unlike the top choice, the extra distance does benefit his closing style. The low-rated third-place debut by CITY OF CHAMPIONS might not be indicative of his ability. The race was marred by a spill, the pace was slow, 'CHAMPIONS checked early and showed late run rallying inside. The point is, he ran better than his low 16 Beyer. Likely improvement second time out.

SEVENTH RACE

Five furlongs is an optimum distance for SUPERSTITION, who lost her punch two recent turf-sprint stakes at longer distances. She returns to the course on which she won both starts in fall, has gas for cozy trip right behind the speed, and her bullet work 10 days ago suggests she is sharp. Undefeated BRUJA ESCARLATA gets a class test, moving into a stakes race after front-running wins her first three starts. The presence of at least three other front-runners is a problem, but she is drawn outside where she may have the option to press the pace in the clear or going on with it. Her figures say she is good enough. BULLETPROOF ONE is a 7-for-14 pro and co- highweight. But this is her first start since September, she will be pressured form the outside. CONSTANTIA, co- highweight, would prefer this be longer than five furlongs. Stakes winner and G2-placed in spring at Santa Anita, she will rally late.

EIGHTH RACE

COLT FICTION, 3-for-4 at DMR, enters summer at the top of his game. He finished second last out behind graded winner Brickyard Ride, expected to be among the favorites next weekend in the G1 Bing Crosby. 'FICTION is comfortably drawn outside, and a solid choice to win this N2X from slightly off the pace. CANADIAN PRIDE ran the race of his career last out, a 97-Beyer second behind Bing Crosby-possible Dr. Schivel. 'PRIDE finished more than five lengths clear of third in that N2X, and is quick enough to establish position from the rail. HOWBEIT crushed a N1X last out with a big number. His DMR form is nondescript, but he is a better horse this year at age 4. FASHIONABLY FAST is a back-class Cal-bred stakes winner who may have lost a step.

NINTH RACE

BRANDOTHEBARTENDER misfired at Los Alamitos, but that was dirt and turf seems his preferred surface. A three-time turf stakes winner, he has eight turf wins overall (just one win on dirt), he returns to preferred footing as tepid choice from a disadvantageous outside post in this turf mile. NORTH COUNTY GUY, freshened three months, finished less than a length behind the top choice last out in a similar Cal-bred turf mile stakes. Sharp works, he is ready to fire off the bench. He is drawn widest, however. MARGOT'S BOY was only prepping last out, runner-up by less than a length. He ran the race of his career on the DMR turf course last summer, runner-up in the G2 Del Mar Derby. Off-the-pace contender second start back from a three-month layoff. WOUND TIGHT has a chance to steal it, depending on how much pressure he gets from comebacker GALILEAN, who won this race last year.

TENTH RACE

KIND BUT SHE LIES, third last out in a maiden-30 at six furlongs, drops to maiden-20 and gets an additional half-furlong to flatter her closing rally. ROWANGOESHOLLYWOOD adds Lasix for her first start in nearly three months; back-to-back thirds vs. similar in spring give a big look. First-time starter B'ESAME ME MUCHO debuts for a stable that occasionally pops with slow-working first-ers. That is a temporary wrap for this handicapper. Midsummer vacation next week, returning for the Aug. 5 Del Mar card.

CLOSER LOOK Debut at LRC June 27 was a pip as he stalked and stayed on well to be a game 2nd, earning a heady Beyer; no shock he's got talent as he cost $375K so there are likely expectations here; can surely benefit from that outing, has worked well since and Sadler is strong 2nd time out; all 5 sibs to race are winners including Bourbon Courage (25-4-6-6, $1.1 million, G2 SW, had 10 SPs including 3 G1s, 4 G2s, 1 G3).

CLOSER LOOK First 2 starts, both sprints last fall/winter, were quite smart; then moved to a mile at SA Jan. 23 and while he ran 2nd he was no threat to a monster winner (beaten by 14 lengths); hasn't been seen since so there's a layoff to ponder but he's been working well for Glatt who does well off this kind of layoff; Glatt also adds blinkers, another move with which he's had ample success; cost $600K so there were once big expectations here; lone sib is Sensuous (5-0-0-0, $4K).

CLOSER LOOK Debut here last Sept. 6 wasn't bad as he pressed the issue before tiring some to end up 4th; trouble is, he hasn't been seen since so that's a long layoff to overcome; the good news is he's been working well and Baffert has strong numbers off a long layoff like this; showed speed in that debut so he'll likely do so again here.

CLOSER LOOK Debut at SA April 3 was encouraging as he dueled from the start before tiring in the lane to finish 4th, and while he didn't run badly that won't make those who made him the 1-2 favorite feel any better; given time since but has worked strongly the past month and Baffert has strong numbers off a long layoff like this; nice, too, to see Prat keep the call; 2 of 3 sibs to race are winners including Fort Worth (8-3-0-2, $133K).

CLOSER LOOK Young sire 0 for first 22 with 2yo firsters; sire was 8-3-2-1 for $468K, won a G1, G2, had 3 SPs including a G1, G3; dam's lone foal to race is Pretty Lawyer (3-0-0-1, $2K); dam was 12-1-3-2 for $40K; been working steadily, even if not terribly quickly, though Desormeaux doesn't necessarily push down hard on his 2yos in the a.m., and yet has good debut-win numbers.

CLOSER LOOK Debut at LRC June 27 wasn't bad at all as he stalked and stayed on evenly for 3rd; while Baffert is well known for having his 2yos cranked and ready first time out he's just about as good 2nd time out; now HOF rider Smith takes over and blinkers go on; cost $560K so you know there are some expectations here; lone sib is Take Her Temp (11-1-4-3, $27K).

CLOSER LOOK His first run at June 27 was decent as after being a bit slow into stride he kept to his task to get 4th, not far behind today's foe Carbonite in 3rd; worked well since and gets blinkers and not only does Glatt have strong numbers 2nd time out, he has strong numbers when adding blinkers, too; Prat was up for that first run but ends up elsewhere (Murray), so read into that what you will; wouldn't be shocked at all to see a move forward here.

CLOSER LOOK Flashed potential last summer/fall but seems to be putting it all together; comes off 3 straight big efforts at SA; first he won March 12, then ran 2nd (to a guy who came back to be 2nd in a G2) April 24, then ran 2nd (to a G1 SW) last time out June 18, beaten only a neck; speed to utilize the rail but he's shown he's no need-the-lead type either; bullet work here July 21 says he holds his edge.

CLOSER LOOK Like the rail horse he's really come into his own this year; beat $32K claimers at SA Feb. 13 and has improved ever since; looked super blasting allowance foes at SA June 19; Cedillo has been up for much of his best work but ends up on the rail horse instead; of course, it's never a bad thing to get Prat to do the steering; worked well since that big June 19 win and he's got the speed and versatility to give his rider options.

CLOSER LOOK Good enough to win a Cal-bred sprint stakes at SA in June 2020; however, then came 2 so-so allowance outings here last summer and he hasn't been seen since so that long layoff, on the heels of those 2 so-so outings is disconcerting; and while it's encouraging he returns with no tag attached it's not as if he found some soft landing spot for his return as this spot came up tough; and let's face it, he hasn't exactly done his best work here, either (5-0-0-1).

CLOSER LOOK Speed to be in it from the start; only prior try here wasn't too hot but that came a while ago and he's surely a better horse now than he was then; in fact, he comes off a good 3rd in a stakes at PLN last time out July 3, that on the heels of a big allowance win at GG so he's really picked up his game of late; that said, he likely needs to do so again but that's hardly out of reach and he worked strongly over this track last week to indicate he's doing well.

CLOSER LOOK Looked on his way in the fall of 2018 with 2 smashing mile wins at SA; alas, things haven't gone so well since as he's winless in 8 starts since and there have been a few gaps in his activity; the good news is there's no gap coming into this and he perked up considerably last time out at SA May 31 when a good 2nd this level; while that May 31 run was nice the Beyer is still likely behind what he needs to be a big player and while he's at the same level this spot came up very tough.

CLOSER LOOK They thought enough of him earlier this year to send him to Dubai for a shot at a G2; well, things didn't pan out so well that day and he hasn't been seen since; at least showed sprint ability at this level in his 2 starts prior to the trip to Dubai so if he's able to get back to that kind of form off the long layoff he's eligible to be scary, though off that kind of layoff that's no small 'if', is it?; did work awfully well here last week.

CLOSER LOOK Posted 2 nice wins at SA this spring, which earned him a stakes shot there last time out June 12 and that day he chased likely the quickest horse on the circuit (Brickyard Ride) and gamely pursued him before ending up a well-beaten 2nd; that was still a good run and in fact he tied his career-top Beyer for the effort; worked well since and note he's been dynamite on this track (4-3-0-1) and has the tactical speed and versatility to get a good trip.

CLOSER LOOK There was a day he would have been heavily favored over these and likely would have put a whuppin' on them; alas, he's got a few more furlongs in him and more time has gone through the hour-glass so it seems he's lost a step or 2; but don't take that to mean he still can't be scary; after all, he was a good 3rd in a race like this at SA April 24, less than a length behind the rail horse and after that was 3rd in a stakes; working well and has done some of his best work here and his tactical speed from this outside post might lead to a dream trip stalking or pressing the issue.

CLOSER LOOK A good, rallying 4th in this last year and he might be better now than he was then; of course, he likely needs to be to turn the tables on a few of these but he comes here sharp off 2 straight wins; yes, those last 2 came on dirt but he's proven on turf, too; has the tactical speed to utilize the rail, likely meaning he can press the issue while saving ground.

CLOSER LOOK Considering he hadn't run in 15 months that 4th in a turf sprint stakes at SA last time out June 19 wasn't bad at all; can certainly benefit from that outing and from today's added ground as his best work has come routing; most encouraging they picked a tough spot like an open stakes for that first start off a long layoff and he stays in stakes ranks here; lone SW came over state-breds, albeit going a bit longer, but his speed likely means this trip will suit him just fine.

CLOSER LOOK Gone nearly a year but you wouldn't know it the way he came back at SA June 6, rallying to win a tough allowance turf sprint; nice to see there's not another layoff and that they feel good enough to toss him into stakes waters; that said, it's a new, longer trip and all his best work has come sprinting; his 2 tries going a mile weren't bad, but he didn't really punch it in during furlong No. 8 so could that be an issue here as he has 8 1/2fs to deal with?

CLOSER LOOK Had things going well last fall into the spring, topped off by 2 nice wins on SA turf; last 2 there, however, were so-so; those came vs. open company, yes, but those were still allowance horses; now he's facing some tough Cal-bred stakes dudes; in his defense, he had trouble in both those last 2 starts but he still likely needs to run a race he hasn't run yet to be a player vs. these, though such a move forward is by no means out of reach.

CLOSER LOOK Had a real nice first half of 2020 including a SW on turf over Cal-bred 3yos; however, he gave way in the G3 La Jolla here last Aug. 9 and hasn't looked quite the same since; after that he was gone 5 months and has come back with mixed form; did win on GG synthetic April 25 so it's not as if he hasn't shown sparks but after that came a modest stakes try; returns as a gelding, returns to turf and gets Prat and maybe all that combines to vault him forward...maybe.

CLOSER LOOK Ranked among the top turf stayers in SoCal for a while but he hasn't been able to have quite the same impact since June 2020; did post 2 wins at SA earlier this year but both those came vs. starter allowance foes; these are obviously quite a bit tougher; at least wasn't disgraced when 4th to North County Guy in the Cal Cup Turf Classic at SA in Jan. as he was beaten by just 2 lengths but he still likely needs to improve off that and while he's won at this trip the bulk of his success has come going longer.

CLOSER LOOK Your defending champ; remember, too, back in 2019 they thought they might have a G1 Ky. Derby horse; hasn't been seen since a dirt sprint stakes 4th here last Nov. 22 but he's run well before off the bench for a trainer who does well off a layoff; and returning to turf and this longer trip may play better for him; has tactical speed to get a good trip and it's encouraging Sadler picked a tough spot like this for his comeback as this is no soft landing spot; hey, they knew who they'd have to run against here.

CLOSER LOOK His brightest moment came on this course last summer when a game 2nd in the G2 Del Mar Derby; didn't really progress much after that but was freshened this spring and came back with a real nice 2nd on LRC dirt June 26; that shows that the layoff may have done plenty of good and he's surely better on this footing, too; has speed and versatility to get a good trip and it's most encouraging Hernandez stays with him; that said, a bunch of these beat him a few times this past winter so improvement is required - but by no means out of reach.

CLOSER LOOK Stalked the pace in the Bertrando on LRC dirt June 26 but was basically one-paced, ending up 4th; in his defense, while he handles dirt it isn't his best game; this, however, is the footing he enjoys most and his form prior to that LRC run was strong and on turf; rallied well to be a good 3rd in this race last year and if anything he may be even a bit better now, despite being an 8yo with a lot of furlongs in him; bullet work July 11 says he's doing well and Rispoli, who's been up for much of his best work, stays put.

CLOSER LOOK Gave way in the G2 Hollywood Turf Cup here last Nov. 27 and you thought he might be going the wrong way; well, you would have been wrong as after that came 2 wins (1 in a Cal-bred turf stakes) and then a game 2nd to today's foe Brandothebartender in another Cal-bred stakes at SA April 24; hasn't run since but he'd been busy for a while so maybe the rest was just what the Dr. ordered, and note a big run on this course last year off a longer layoff; certainly no trouble with the footing or trip and some sharp works say he's doing well, though he got no help from the draw.
