Church Service

Just missed the only time he ran this distance on the synth in a G3 stakes here in March; the three horses who beat him in the G2 Del Mar Handicap subsequently ran fourth, third, and fifth, respectively, in the G1 Hirsch; trainer has hit with 18% of his layoff runners that went from turf to the main track during the past five years; on the edges.

Add Heat

Steady Cal-bred has never won a stakes, and has never run beyond a mile and three-eighths; the seventh horse from his latest returned to win a $64K stakes at Fresno; trainer/rider combo is 1 for 5 at the meeting and 5 for 20 on the year; unlikely.

Delightful Kiss

Punched his ticket for the inaugural running of this event when he captured a mile and a half stakes at Turfway, where he beat two next-out winners including Star Plus, who took an allowance at Keeneland; upset heavily favored Awesome Gem, a win-shy type, up north most recently in a G3; figures to save ground under Borel, who was aboard for those two scores; in the mix.

One Union

He made his first start over the downhill course last out in the Grade 3 Morvich and has reason to improve in his second time over the course; earlier this week, Mandella said he felt the distance of the inaugural Turf Sprint would suit this one well; note, too, that the last time the BC was held at SA, the Mandella barn accounted for four wins; this one's dam was a Grade 2 winner of 12 races and $429K; interesting option.

Get Funky

He is one of just a few in here with experience over the downhill course and that alone makes him worth a long look; adding to his appeal is his recent runner-up finish in the local prep, the Grade 3 Morvich, a race he won back in 2007; defeated a Grade 1 winner two starts ago in the $90K Green Flash H., at Del Mar; and hails from the high percentage outfit of Sadler.

Mr. Nightlinger

The probable favorite here, he will break from the widest gate which could require using some horse to get position early to avoid a wide trip later; his good speed will serve him well in that regard, and he does come into this as sharp as one can enter the biggest test of their career - off five consecutive turf sprint wins; charts some new territory, however, as this will be his first start over the downhill course, and he is racing beyond six furlongs for the first time in a while; still, have to like that string of triple digit Beyer Speed Figures; win candidate.

Mast Track
Gate-to-wire Hollywood Gold Cup upsetter over Go Between and Student Council (pair of G1 winners contesting the Classic) will start despite dealing with a quarter crack earlier this week; ever-capable Frankel enters much-improved colt who expired in Goodwood duel with 44-1 upstart Informed (finished last); possible pace player is reunited with Baze, who guided him to the G1 upset; threat on top stuff.

Two Step Salsa
3-year-old lacking a triple-digit Beyer will be a long price despite just suffering 1st non-exacta finish in Philly Park conventional dirt debut; he's a confirmed quality speedster on synthetic strips yet gets even more of a class test in this BC event; chances seem brighter if clearing to the lead without much difficulty; a lifetime best performance is required.

Pyro
High-profile 3-year-old starts here instead of being trainer Asmusen's 3rd Classic hope behind Curlin and Student Council; colt is a capable stretch-runner when on his game although he's scored just once in 5 attempts since failing at even-money in the Blue Grass, his lone race on a synthetic surface so far; extreme outside posts didn't help at Saratoga and Hoosier Park; 'A' effort could find him injecting value into exotics from off the pace.

Albertus Maximus

Talented 2-turn runner has improved since adopting more patient strategy under trainer Cerin's handling; 4-time winner will attract his share of supporters: off solid Pro-Flide debut behind Well Armed; Gomez sees fit to return aboard individual who may be getting it together at the end of 4-year-old campaign; has the most experience on synthetic although 8 of those 11 starts were losses; be no surprise if building on latest effort.

The trip to Dubai to finish 3rd behind Curlin didn't seem to take much out of this 5-year-old as he's now better than ever; European transplant would be perfect 3-for-3 during current form cycle if not for late lunge by Classic morning line 3rd choice Go Between, who's also in career-best form; tactical zip is there for Gryder and repeat of the Goodwood could suffice; must factor into the equation.

Slew's Tiznow

Younger full-brother of stable-mate Slew's Tizzy is slated to make just 5th start in the Dirt Mile; not sure how Del Mar 1 mile victory over 3-for-15 Young Joe stacks up with these but Rafael Bejarano is enticed to ride him back today; less-than-ideal post further complicates matters in toughest task of his life; not expecting a repeat.

Drawing the inside for the BC mile is always a positive, but in his case, it's particularly key; this horse is not intimidated by racing inside, and has used hedge skimming rides to score some of his biggest victories (such as in the 2007 Bernard Baruch); was left with too much to do in the Shadwell, and turned in an a powerful late run to go from ninth to second in the final furlong; dangerous at a price.

Kip Deville

Velasquez said "he did not try" in the Woodbine Mile; willing to excuse that performance due to the yielding conditions; although he has previously handled wet ground, including in winning the BC Mile last year at Mth, every course is different when it's wet; we know he likes this turf course when it is firm, as he proved in winning the Sir Beaufort in late 2006 and the G1 Frank Kilroe in March of 2007; defending champion is the choice to repeat.

She seemed home free in the First Lady, cruising on the lead with a moderate pace, and then in a flash, Forever Together blew past her; Frankel chooses to take on the boys here, rather than go 1 1/4 miles against the girls in the Filly and Mare turf; looking at her form, she seems best at 1 1/8 miles or less; first or second in 17 of 23 starts, but not expecting another exacta finish against this quality group.

British bookmaker William Hill lists her at 7-4 odds, meaning a speck more than 8-5 in odds terms that most Americans are used to seeing; easy to understand those short odds given her three straight victories, including in the prestigious Prix du Moulin against males; she beat a quality bunch in that race, although fifth-place Henrythenavigator (in the Classic) did not care for the soft ground; second selection behind Kip Deville.

Was dominant early in the year, in great part because he kept catching fields that were short on speed; this allowed him to cruise to easy leads and dominate the opposition; lately, he has experienced more pace pressure and hasn't been as effective; believe he can make the front here, although it appears unlikely he will get away with soft splits.

War Monger

Made a threatening move in the Shadwell but couldn't catch Thorn Song and was caught in the closing yards by Shakis for the place; it was good effort, which followed a fine second to Shakis in the Bernard Baruch; a bit concerned about his stalking style from his post, which could lead to him losing ground with a wide trip.

Thorn Song

He set a lively pace in the Shadwell, but was doing it comfortably on the lead; that's not to discount his performance; this horse is a tough miller, as he proved in beating Einstein in the Firecracker and running a close third to Kip Deville in the Maker's Mark Mile earlier in the year; presence of Daytona to his inside will likely mean he will have to attempt to win from a pace-pressing position.

Whatsthescript (IRE)

Has made significant progress this year for Sadler, winning a pair of G2s and running second in the G1 Eddie Read; took advantage of a hot, contested pace in his latest, but this is a horse that has also shown that he can rally from behind slow fractions with similar effectiveness; outside draw is an obvious negative with a short run to the turn; he is at risk of a wide trip.

A CLOSER LOOK

5th Oak Tree at SA

Munnings

They paid a lot for this colt and he's proven he has plenty of ability while finishing behind the East coast's top juvenile in each of his last two starts; he worked sharply over this new surface last weekend, but his pedigree raises at least some questions regarding his ability to prosper at two turns; morning line favorite doesn't figure to offer a lot of value, but he can't be dismissed in a weak renewal of the Juvenile.

Gallant Son

Washington based colt got a nice pace setup in the Goltstein Futurity score in which he earned a Beyer that was head and shoulders over anything he'd run in 4 prior starts; though he worked a bullet 3/4s here last weekend, the waters get quite a bit deeper in here, however, and he'll need to again take a big step forward to have a say in the outcome.

Terrain

Late runner encountered trouble in his two synthetic tries, yet still wasn't beaten by much either time; his off the pace style figures to play well over this surface, but he again has Square Eddie to deal with; price figures to be right for those who believe he's ready to move forward in this one.

Square Eddie

It was far from a stellar field assembled at Keeneland for Breeders' Futurity, but this guy was extremely sharp in victory right off the plane; he retains Bejarano following a slow drill over the local main track and he'll make his first start under the care of a conditioner who knows his way around here; imports often showcase the best of what they have to offer and first time in the states, he deserves to be mentioned with this field's top contenders returning in just 3 weeks.

Azul Leon

Gets a new rider as his regular pilot opted to stick with this barn's other, uncoupled entry-mate; he improved as the sprint distances increased, but his initial two turn attempt in the Norfolk wasn't much and he had little excuse behind a couple who will return here as well; prefer to side with others.

Silent Valor

This guy also got weary late in his two turn debut over the track, but he had been up close to the pacesetters and does figure to benefit from the try; though his pedigree raises concern he'll get much better going this far and he loses Gomez to Midshipman; he does get the services of a top pilot in Prado and has shown the ability to rate and finish sprinting; could be worth a second look.

Elusive Bluff

Late running turfer makes his first start over a synthetic surface after earning his stakes laurels in New York; while he's worked over the local main track, he wasn't really asked for too much in that breeze, and his bloodlines suggest he should be better on the main track; hard to knock what he's done, but he'll get a serious class test in here.

Street Hero

Broke through when blinkers were added in his third try versus Midshipman, earning his maiden score in the Norfolk; the race didn't really come up that fast on the Beyer scale, however, and that affords hope to many of today's rivals; returned to work on the slow side and at his 6-1 morning line price he may just be underlaid in this spot.

Mine That Bird

Three time stakes winner goes first time for Mandella off a sharp drill over the local main track; while the gelding has earned Beyers that are a little light compared to what the bigger players in here have run, he's won 4 straight over synthetic and he had little trouble overcoming a slow clip in his first two turn try; big morning line price of 30-1 makes him hard to toss out of the bottom of exotic wagers.

Pioneer of the Nile

Decent try for third first time off the lawn in Keeneland's Breeders' Futurity, but he'll also tackle the top two finishers from that heat in here; his running style fits the track's profile and he worked sharply prior to leaving Kentucky; lightly raced colt should go much better in his second start over synthetic.

Midshipman

Baffert colt has had his own battle with Street Hero in his brief career; have to be encouraged with his effort when spotting that foe experience in the Norfolk and his sire took the 1995 edition of this heat; while the outside draw isn't ideal, he's proven he can pass runners late and he is certainly full of ability; prime contender.

Bushranger (IRE)

Ireland bred enters this off a couple of Group 1 scores sprinting on the lawn overseas; he's used to toting this type of weight and turfers often take well to synthetic so the surface switch isn't a big concern, but the added ground is something that could pose him a problem; 6-1 morning line price may be a little light, but if he drifts a bit he's one to consider against this mostly lackluster bunch.

West Side Bernie

East coast based barn has done some nice work with this lightly raced colt; he's shown the recent mornings that he loves the local main track, but he couldn't have drawn tougher post and could suit through some serious ground loss; morning line price of 20-1 eases some of that pain, but he'll have a tough task ahead of him.

Ninth Client

Potential pace participant draws best of those expected to contest the fractions but Coronet of a Baron, Vaquero and Orthodox could provide heavy pressure; colt contested soft splits en route to holding on for share of Saratoga win with Skipadate and that opponent has picked up his game since; longshot has 2 scores to settle with Bittel Road; likely proves vulnerable when the real running begins.

City Style

Darley Stable runner is in from Louisiana, where he ran down a horse who had opened a 4 length midstretch lead (Classy Gentleman) for $41.40 upset; son of stakes-winner Brattothecore (off board lone turf try) was dangled for $25K tag in debut; he may simply be much better on the green for profitable turf trainer and is liable to enjoy ground-saving journey behind a quick pace; would be no surprise if the fractions really heat up.

Westphalia (IRE)

Next in long line of contenders from O'Brien/Murtagh this weekend was last seen posting G2 triumph in England; colt's only subpar performance to date came over 'heavy' ground in Ireland and have to like how he rebounded quickly from that disappointment at 4-5 odds; son of 1-for-4 turf dam is kin to 3 sw's (Lily's Lad won 4 races and $223K on the green); consider out of cozy inside post.

Donativum (GB)

Half-brother to grassy G2 La Jolla winner Worldly (4-for-9, $305K on turf in U.S.) is out of G3 placed juvenile Miss Universe; the freshening did this individual some good in view of 2 subsequent victories, the latest in $1.7 million event at expense of 23 foes; Dettori's presence is noted aboard the field's leading money winner; Euro-shipper appears to be heading the right way and may class-up well.

Relatively Ready
New York shipper was beaten favorite over yielding ground by 2-for-2 turfer Elusive Bluff, who will contest the Juvenile on Pro-Ride; NY-bred half-brother to 2 turf winners, led by Stormy Relations (7-2-3-1, $97K on grass), needs some improvement to register the upset; likely gets 1st chance to compete on firm turf at highest price of career; leaning another way.

Vaquero
Desormeaux picks up mount aboard colt who contended until deep stretch in 47-1 Keeneland turf unvelling; half to Galatea Cat (14-3-2-1, $86K on the green) has yet to regress on Beyer scale yet seemingly faces no easy pace scenario while venturing West; not convinced this runner can advance again under these circumstances although believers get a healthy price once again.

Coronet of a Baron
$550K Juvenile looms a contender despite trying turf as well as a route for the 1st time; colt was sandwiched in between Juvenile contenders Midshipman and Street Hero when just missing in the G1 Del Mar Futurity; son of 12% grass sire Pure Prize (sire of G1 turf winner and Filly and Mare Turf entrant Pure Clan) looks to become initial turf winner out of 6-time winning main track dam; intriguing.

Paddy The Pro (IRE)
Most eclectic of the European shippers is this runner who is 2-for-2 on Polytrack and finished 8th in lone grass attempt to date; 1st winner out of 0-for-11 dam handled 12 opponents in each victory and has enticed Garrett Gomez, part of strong TJ team with Gallagher, to ride; races beyond 6 furlongs for 1st time in American debut; leaning towards others in this spot.

A CLOSER LOOK

7th Oak Tree at SA

Cost of Freedom

Two moves in the last score, a strong performance to capture the G1 Ancient Title but he is likely to find himself pinned inside here against these superstars; perfect record over the course is hard to overlook but because of the rail slot, his chances might be compromised; tremendous local work-outs to consider but continuing the streak will be a formidable task.

Street Boss

Ultra-consistent performer lost by a diminishing length to Cost of Freedom but, like that talented rival, has shown a distinct preference for this surface (an important weapon); superior middle mover worked a blazing five-eighths here 11 days ago; as talented as this runner is, he too might be hindered by inner slot; needs to be cut loose at precise movement by Flores who has shown great rapport with this colt.

Fabulous Strike

Had shoe problems the day of the Vosburgh yet still turned in a superior effort in defeat; was part of a 4-way gun battle for command and nearly held off the winner; only drawback is the inexperience over the synthetic footing; run and gun tactics under gifted rider.

Better Talk Now

The avg. winning Beyer for this is 112; he posted a 111 when he won this race back in 2004 and Beyered 110 when 2nd to Red Rocks in 2006; been a wonderful warrior for a long time now; that being said, while he's shown signs of life this year he's still been beaten by a number of these; in fact, you have to go back to June 2007 to find his last win (G1 Manhattan); likely prefers ground with some give - this course won't be as friendly as those East Coast surfaces; this end of the pool may be a bit too deep at this stage of the game...but he deserves a round of applause when he comes back to be unsaddled regardless of the result.

Red Rocks (IRE)

There's no doubt he's good enough - heck, he won this in 2006, then was 3rd on that MTH bog last year, and this past July he won the best turf race of the year, beating Curlin, Better Talk Now and Grand Couturier in the G1 Man o' War; the question is condition - he had a staph infection after that win and missed the Sword Dancer and Joe Hirsch; the good news is they still feel good enough about him to show up here and Dettori rides, and maybe that's the ringing endorsement; obviously the American game (quicker pace, firmer footing) takes him from being a nice horse in Europe to a top-shelf one here.

Grand Couturier (GB)

That G1 Joe Hirsch win was brilliant, and that 112 Beyer shows he's got the oomph to win this; sure, that was on yielding ground, but remember in Aug. 2007 he whipped eventual BC Turf hero English Channel in the G1 Sword Dancer on ground that was as firm or firmer than he's going to see here, so the footing shouldn't scare you off; was no match for 'Rocks in the G1 Man o' War but while that guy has had health issues, this guy has flourished and may be better than ever.

Always liked this guy, gives h all each time and is prove against some of the best fro 8fs-10fs; that being said, tod we're playing the 12f game something he's never done; d post a 112 Beyer when 2nd in the G1 Hirsch last time; s note in his 2 longest races, he G1 Manhattan and G1 Hirsch both at 10is, he was vulnerab in the final yards - can he b expected to hold on bett when tacking on 2fs more whi facing the toughest turf field the season?

Eagle Mountain (GB)

One-time O'Brien runner made his first start for new trainer de Kock a good one, winning a G1 in England; de Kock's only other U.S. starter was Archipenko, who had a troubled trip when 4th in the G1 Arlington Million; did plenty of good work for O'Brien in 2007 including running 2nd in the G1 Epsom Derby and G1 Champion...but that last G3 SW Oct. 3 was his first start in over 11 months; is he ready, or just that mile race, to now tack le some of the game's best going 12fs after shipping halfway around the world? at least he's fairly fresh and maybe ready to vault forward.

9th Oak Tree at SA

Go Between

Owens Pacific Classic/Sunshine Millions Classic victories this season; style is to rally from far off the pace; should get a good-ground saving ride by reigning Eclipse rider Gomez, who seemingly had other options in this race; trainer Mott took the 'Classic in '95 with Cigar; Go' is sired by a Santa Anita Derby winner; is out of a Grade 3-placed dam (5-for-23, 194K); was beaten under 1 length in the Big Cap at today's distance over the track; view as an exotics possibility.

Casino Drive

Was awaiting the Big Brown matchup in the Belmont Stakes after his superb Peter Pan, but he was scratched out of that Triple Crown start; 3-year-old Grade 2 stakes winner is out of a Grade 2 dam (2-for-8, 250K), who produced Belmont Stakes champions Jazil (2-for-11, 890K) and 1.3M Rags to Riches (5-for-7); perfect 3-for-3 record after his solid local victory, defeating older rivals over the track in a prep for this; clearly faces his toughest class test to date.

Tiago

A Santa Anita Derby winner, noting he accomplished that feat racing over the previous SA traditional dirt oval; his Oaklawn Handicap tally of 2008 was also on regular dirt; his sire finished 2nd in both the Breeders' Cup Classic and Sprint; is out of a stakes-winning dam (5-for-12, 173K), who produced Kentucky Derby winner Giacomo (3-for-16, 2.5M); rallied well prepping for this in latest; his 4-0-0 record at year's Chateaufort and his farthest lead me to others.

Duke of Marmalade (IRE)

Ended his 5-race Group 1 grass winning streak when unplaced in the Arc; the trainer is 3-for-44 in Breeders' Cup events and hasn't had much success in the states since 2007 (0-for-9); makes his 1st start ever over a synthetic surface today; is rated equally with the other 2 Euro invaders -Henrythenavigator and Raven's Pass; mixed feelings, wheeling back in 20 days, while attempting a new surface for the 1st time.

Henrythenavigator

Defeated by Raven's Pass at the 1-Mile distance when rallying too late, this 4-time Group 1 winner is out of a Group 1 dam (2-for-9, 150K); makes his synthetic surface debut, noting the win rider sides with Duke of Marmalade; the new rider Johnny M is 7-for-71 in the Breeders' Cup going into 2008 and was ranked 5th in money earned all-time; 3-year-old races beyond 8 furlongs for the 1st time ever here; tough call.

Smooth Air

Ohio Derby hero gets his initial synthetic surface test today, while facing older rivals for the 1st time; has shown better tactical speed since breaking 18th from the gate and finishing 11th in the 2008 edition of the Kentucky Derby; exits a turf victory and has handled wet tracks (2-for-2); 3-year-old appears ambitiously placed vs. this bunch.

2008 Pimlico Special and 2007 Pacific Classic triumphs are both on his resume; landed behind similar rivals earlier this year over the Santa Anita strip and also finished behind some of these in latest at Del Mar; been working in sensational fashion over the track for this; he is out of a Grade 3-dam (10-for-27, 582K); off his 2008 efforts, have him ranked a notch below the top contenders.

Raven's Pass

3-year-old Group 1 winner exchanged decisions with Henrythenavigator, getting the better of his nemesis last time out when rallying to score at 1 Mile; another, who is stretching out in distance and attempting a new racing surface for the 1st time; he is out of a Grade 3 dam (2-for-11, 188K), who produced G3 Gigawatt (8-for-39, 512K); was rated "much" better in the Turf Mile than in this spot.

Curlin

Seeks to become only the 2nd horse to capture consecutive runnings of the Breeders' Cup Classic (Tiznow: 2000-2001); all-time leading money earner in North American thoroughbred history and reigning Horse of the Year suffered his lone loss this year on turf; makes his 1st start ever on a synthetic surface, although his workouts over the Santa Anita surface have appeared to be right on the money; is currently on a 5-race winning streak at today's mile and a quarter distance with his lone defeat at 10 furlongs when receiving a night-mare trip in the '07 Kentucky Derby; has definitely lived up to his billing as a superstar in 2008 after dominating last year's Classic; the pick.

Fairbanks

Would have been one of the top choices in the Breeders' Cup Marathon, but the defection of some speed-runners from the 'Classic opted this Grade 2 stakes winner to try the big boys; he is a sibling to Grade 2 Keats (5-for-20, 462K); the trainer enters this year's 'Cup with a 3-for-51 record; know him early.

Colonel John

2008 Santa Anita Derby winner was awesome on traditional dirt in latest, scoring a game Travers victory minus Big Brown or Casino Drive in the field; his Swaps at Hollywood Park didn't impress after his late-running 6th-place finish in the Ky. Derby; his Travers at today's distance was very impressive to the eye; his sire is the only multiple winner of the Breeders' Cup Classic; is 1 of 5 three-year-olds in the field each getting 5 pounds from the older set; horse for the course is the main rival.

Champs Elysees (GB)

Big race in the Big Cap earlier this year - to finish 3rd after breaking 13th from the gate; been working great over the Santa Anita oval; hails from a family of champions; sibling to Banks Hill (1.8M), winner of the Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf and 2M Intercontinental, who also captured the B.C. Filly and Mare Turf; the trainer is 2nd in money earned at the Breeders' Cup, posting a 2004 'Classic triumph with Ghostzapper; seems to be coming into this the right way; contender.
