Came to the US 3 back and ran third in an opt clm on the good track. Winner of that race won back in a GP 75K stakes. Has some class to her. VALUE: 8 STYLISHLY Might be a cut below these but there are a few things to consider. The trainer won twice here opening week. This mare gets back on the grass after running on a wet dirt track last. May get the run of the race. She dropped finally in the start 3 back. Took a chance with 80k opt clm company in last. Winner won in a stakes afterwards. 5 th won a 50k claimer. VALUE: 4 SPUN EAZY Shipper from Will Rogers makes the right drop to 30k claiming from an allw there. There were two that won back from that race (5 th won alw, 7 th won 7k clm). P. 6-1 PICK: 5 FRONT RUN THE FED Big things are ahead for this 4YO colt by Fed Biz. Really showed something 2 back when he was shut off early, dropped way back, rallied 5-wide and still won. Brown 35% off a long break in turf opt clm route. VALUE: 6 RITZY A. P. The Seasbiscuit he exits back in Nov has become a strong race. Winner beaten a neck in the G1 Kilroe after. Third won the G1 Kilroe, G3 since. This one is two times graded stakes placed but has just 3 wins. The three from that one in this spot will be the first to run back. She pressed a fast pace wide breaking from the 12 post. Two for three in top two at CD. VALUE: 5 SACRED UNION She's run four times, all at OP. She finally dropped to claiming in last. She flew late to get second. Sloppy tracks in two prior starts. Love the worktab coming in and a slight bump in class. Baze up for all starts. A) 4,5,10,11 B) 1,2,8,9 C) 3,6,12
