CLOSER LOOK: Out of a stakes-winning dam, though Grace Phil was at her best sprinting on the main track; this colt is kin to Temperance, who has posted both of her two career wins on the turf; this is a tough spot for a turf debut, and he does like to be close to the pace; could prove a threat if he can take back and make one run but he will also need to work out a trip from the hedge.

Stretches out after sprinting almost exclusively this year; tries grass for the first time, and the dam's lone win did come on the turf; this is her first starter; likely to be a pace factor from the start, and she does have solid recent figures, but she figures to have a tough time lasting given the expected pace scenario.

Got away with a soft opening quarter when loose on the lead in that Ellis Park score in his latest; that led to a career-best figure, one which puts him in the mix with these, but he can be expected to regress today if he doesn't get another loose lead through mild splits; he does have a bit of a rating gear but he is at his best when at least close to the pace, and quick fractions would hurt his chances.

Hard to envision how this colt doesn't get very nice set up in this American Turf Stakes; there are several speeds, to his inside and out, and while he has speed he is more than capable of taking back and making one run; best recent figures put him right in the middle of this, and though he was off the board last time a troubled start provides a convenient excuse; top pick.

Has some of the better Beyers in the field, and he comes off a sharp score in his first start off the short break; clearly dangerous based on those figures but he does figure to have some trouble staving off a runner like Field Pass if he's under pressure from the start, and the fractions are swift; obviously on the short list of contenders but race flow is a concern.

Winless on the turf, and also worth noting that he likes to be close up from the start; in a race that seems packed with early zip that's not a plus; also concerning is the fact that his Beyers are light compared with the rest of these, and he'd likely need to post a career-high Beyer to get a major part of this; expecting him to be much higher than his 12-1 Morning Line price.

Yet another with early speed, he'll be a factor from the bell despite his outside post; he did rate a bit in that solid effort in defeat in the Transylvania two back but he was close from the start, as that is his running style; with swift splits likely that could be a problem for him, especially if he's caught wide while prompting the issue; steady Beyers a plus, and he has never run a bad race, but if he's to win this he'll likely have to do it by overcoming an extreme race flow. -Kenny Peck

If you can toss her latest, and there are plenty of reasons for doing so most notably the soft conditions, she looks like a serious player; her runner-up finish to Got Stormy in the Grade 1 Matriarch two back puts her in the mix; Got Stormy was notching her second Grade 1 victory and was coming off a runner-up finish in the Grade 1 Breeders' Cup Mile; this gal was coming off an 8-month layoff in her latest and should move forward for Arnold who the last five years has a 17% strike rate and $2.46 ROI with horses making their second start following a lengthy layoff; she came from well back in the Matriarch and may have been too sharp in her comeback race as she ended up on the lead between calls; some things to like.

She apparently needed her first start of the year in the Grade 3 Mint Julep when she finished sixth as the chalk; she took a nice step forward in her second start in the Grade 1 Jenny Wiley won by now six-time Grade 1 winner Rushing Fall who came back to win the G1 Diana at Saratoga Aug. 23; she could be sitting on a peak performance here and Gaffalione will know her better after riding her for the first time; the favorite will be tough to beat but this gal should be in the mix.

Not sure what was bothering her last year but she is obviously over it with two dazzling victories in her first two starts as a 4-year-old; she set wicked fractions in her win in the Grade 2 Intercontinental and more reasonable ones in her three-length victory over Beau Recall in the Grade 1 Just A Gleam; this will be her first time without Irad but no complaints with Castellano taking over; Brown usually keeps them going when he has them on top of their game so expecting more of the same; the obvious pick at what will be a short price.

She ran a nice race in the Just A Gleam but failed to defend her title as the favorite int the Yellow Ribbon, her goose was pretty much cooked when she trailed the field while they walked the first half-mile in close to 50 seconds; there will be speed coming back to her in this spot and she likes it here as evidenced by her win in the Grade 2 Distaff Turf Mile last year when she received a career-best 103 Beyer Speed Figure; contender.

5-year-old hasn't really progressed since she won the Grade 3 Wonder Again in her second start in North America as a 3-year-old and her only win since came in the $100K Sand Springs at Gulfstream in March; she almost pulled off a big upset in her only start over this course in the Grade 3 Mint Julep but wasn't much of a factor in her Jenny Wiley where she matched her career-best 94 Beyer Speed Figure; she will need to run the race of her life to contend in this spot; prefer others.

She wasn't beating much in her blowout win in the $60K In The Breeze at Gulfstream in her latest but she was visually impressive as she moved into contention without much urging and she appeared to have more in reserve at the wire; not sure what turned her around but Avila has found the key and she might not have reached her peak; she will obviously have to take another step forward her but that isn't impossible and she could get a nice trip from a stalking position; the price should be right and it would not be a complete shock to see her work her way into the exotics. -Randy Goulding

4-year-old has an excellent record at the distance but the fact that she couldn't win the $100K Musical Romance for Florida-breds two back makes her a hard sell in this spot; the winner got beat as the heavy chalk in her next start in a $60K stakes at Gulfstream; this gal wasn't a serious threat when she finished fourth in the Grade 1 Madison so we are going to look in other directions.

She probably wasn't going to win the Grade 1 Madison but she would have been closer if she didn't get shuffled back on the turn; it was a solid performance and she could be sitting on a big effort in the third start of her current form cycle; she can finish and there should be an honest pace for her to work with; hard to love her on top but can see her being part of the exotics at what should be a decent price.

CLOSER LOOK: Claimed for $62,500 more than two years ago, he's turned into a terror with four consecutive stakes wins including the Wise Dan over this surface; perhaps he was aided by the preferred inside path in the Fair Grounds on February 15, but he's certainly earned his subsequent three victories; caught soft ground for the first time last out, battled through fast and contested fractions outside of 26 to 1 Phantom Currency (finished tenth), put that one away a half-mile out, faced another challenge from next-out winner Ry's the Guy, dispatched that one and then held off the closers in a very game effort; although he's won from off the pace, speed is his game and he might have to deal with Somelikeithotbrown and Spectacular Gem; contender, but demand value.

Multiple Grade 1 winner grabbed the Eddie Read over this distance last summer at Del Mar; thought he received a beautiful ride in last year's Breeders' Cup Mile; hustled from a tough outside post, he grabbed a great spot behind an early pace battle, bid three-wide into the stretch and finished evenly in between rivals; it appears he's racing himself back into shape as he now makes his third start of the form cycle (note he won the Oceanside in 2017 and the Read going third off layoff lines); sat a good pocket trip last time behind a slow pace and finished evenly behind United (next-out 98-Beyer) and Sharp Samurai (next-out 103 Beyer on dirt); can get the right setup in a race with plenty of pace; exotics factor.

Although he's run some bang-up races, the fact remains that he's yet to win a stakes and has been the beaten favorite in three of his last four; North American debut at Belmont last year resulted in a tough-trip third; briefly four wide at the back, maneuvered to the rail to advance inside on the far turn, altered course sharply to be widest turning for home and was running late; made a four-wide bid on the turn of the Whittingham two back, bumped with an inner foe and just missed the bob to the United; ended up in a good pocket spot in the Manhattan, made the front and looked home-free only to get nailed by his mate; think he'll be farther behind the expected quick pace and should come with his usual late bid; can't count out.

Multiple Grade/Group 3 winner makes first start after being purchased for $225,000 at public auction on July 13; thought he received a good closer's setup in the Shoemaker Mile as he raced at the tail end of the field behind a very quick pace; advanced inside on the turn, altered course to the outside in the stretch and finished evenly in between horses; rode a loose pocket behind a gate-to-wire winner in the American and flattened out a bit late; nine furlongs might be a tad far for this one, but he's another that would appreciate a good pace up front; not convinced.

Aside from the Pegasus World Cup (racing with Lasix), he's been a beacon of consistency with exacta finishes in all of his North American starts; returned from a 197-day layoff to roll past his competition in the Oceanport at Monmouth; that wasn't a fast pace considering the course condition and he overcame the slow fractions with a late bid; stalked in between horses on the backstretch, dropped to the rail on the turn, angled back out three-wide and pushed by despite being late to change leads (a constant issue with him); handles any kind of ground and should offer nice value for a super trainer, but wonder if nine furlongs is a bit far for him; minor award might be his ceiling.

A graded winner over synthetic and turf, he's returned from the break in career form; had to go very fast to clear off in the Fort Marcy and hung in gamely for third behind next-out Grade 1 winner Instilled Regard (102 Beyer); became one of four next-out winners to emerge from the Fort Marcy when he received a much-easier pace scenario in the Baruch; inherited an easy lead when expected pace foe Halladay backed off, slowed down the fractions and sprinted on home; guessing the pace scenario here will be more like the Fort Marcy with Factor This and Spectacular Gem also confirmed front-runners; he's won from off the pace in the past; must respect his form, but he'll probably have to run hard from start to finish here; not out of it with the right trip.

Like Somelikeithotbrown, he's a front-runner that's returned from the mini-break with his two best performances; no match for Factor This when attempting to track that one three back, but might not have cared for racing off the better inside path; pressed 11 to 1 shot Corruze (finished seventh) from the rail over soft going at Ellis last time, cut the corner turning for home and held off classy veteran Mr. Misunderstood; these are tougher horses and he drew outside of the other speeds; not sure he's faster than either Factor This or Somelikeithotbrown and not sure he's as effective when rating; stakes-winner over course and distance; prefer others on top. -Dan Illman

Comes off a couple G1 3rds so there's talent here; trouble is, both time he chased home Tiz the Law and both times was well beaten (by 5 1/4 and 7 1/2 lengths, respectively); at least figures to keep coming and he's run just 5 times so there's room for further development; of course, it better come in bunches here as he's got a lot of work to do if he's to cut into, negate or overcome the gap between and Tiz the Law; but hey, he's trending the right way, the Beyers are moving north and he's worked well since; stranger things have happened.

No match for Art Collector, one of the top 3yos, when 4th in the G2 Blue Grass at KEE July 11; in his defense, that was his first start in almost 4 months and he was far back early; trouble is, he's almost always far back early as that's his style; the good news is he does figure to keep coming, though too often he leaves himself with too much to do; working splendidly, though Beyerwise he's yet to run a race good enough to win this; but could he be this year's Rumbo or Woodchopper or Menifee, a horse with late oomph but who gets you to the airport just in time to see you plane take off?

Ran the race of his life to win last fall's G1 BC Juvenile, taking the 2yo championship with him; trouble is, he hasn't won since; hasn't run badly but the reigning 2yo champ doesn't appear to have progressed at 3; maybe the BC Juvenile just wasn't very strong as nobody has come out of that to make a splash; since 1980 (39 runnings) only Nyquist (2016), American Pharoah (2015) and Street Sense (2007) won this as reigning 2yo champs; it's encouraging they feel good enough about him to want to give this a go, but he has to run a race he hasn't run yet to have a say.

Yet to beat winners so he's being asked a lot; comes off an OK 2nd in the G3 Indiana Derby but was no match for clear winner Shared Sense; that runner, good as he looked that day, isn't being brought back for this so that may be telling; worked very well over this track of late, though his 2 priot starts on this track don't exactly get the heart pounding; and with a career-top Beyer of 87 he'll need a significant move forward to do what it normally takes to win this race, and just be competitive vs. a bunch of guys here who have routinely Beyered triple-digits.

Pletcher won this with Always Dreaming in 2017, Super Saver in 2010; $975K son of Candy Ride has done nothing wrong in 3 starts; comes off a strong 2nd in a 9f optional claimer at SAR July 25 and the way he kept to his task says today's added ground will be no problem; the Beyer was also smart; that being said, he's run just the 3 times, tries a new distance and faces much tougher than he's seen before; they could easily have opted for the G2 Jim Dandy at SAR or the G3 Pat Day here so the fact they give him this shot is encouraging, though obviously it means biting off an awful lot.

After a good 2nd in the G3 Ohio Derby he moved to trainer Mott's shedrow and was promptly tossed into the G1 Travers where he performed decently, lagging back and keeping to his task to finish 4th; trouble is, he was never a threat to big winner Tiz the Law, and not really a threat to 3rd finisher and today's foe Max Player; Mott won this race last year with Country House; considering his love for this track (3 for 4, accounting for all 3 career wins) you can't blame 'em for taking a swing and he does have a feel now for the 10f game; still, he needs a big move forward.

That Oaklawn win April 11 was a pip as he rallied strongly from far back in the slop to post a 46-1 upset, suddenly tossing his name into the Triple Crown hat; trouble is, then came a dull run in the G2 Blue Grass; of course, the Blue Grass was his first start in 4 months but he still posted a career-top Beyer that day so it's not as if he came back dull - it seemed more a case he just wasn't good enough; and if anything this spot looks even tougher, and no Beyers over the 90 mark leave him with a lot to do just to get involved.

Baffert has won 5 Derbys, 2nd only to Jimmy Jones (6); soured in the winter/spring but after a freshening came back to be 2nd to talented stablemate Uncle Chuck in the G3 Los Alamitos Derby (though that was a maiden who ran 3rd), then gamely beat Honor A. P. in a stakes at DMR Aug. 1; in other words, the $1 million son of Pioneer of the Nile looks back on track; in fact, he looks better than ever judging by his Beyer's; worked big since, but can Baffert really win another Derby with a guy who might have been only his 5th best 3yo (Charlatan, Nadal, Authentic, Uncle Chuck)?

First 6 races were terrific so this son of G1 BC Mile winner Karakontie has talent to be sure; things didn't go well at all in the G1 Belmont, however, as he was well back early and could pass only a few tired foes, ending up a well-beaten 6th, far behind Tiz the Law; so, it's not as if he comes into this riding high; in his defense, maybe that Belmont run was just one of those days; after all, he's worked lights-out of late for a trainer who darn near won this race with Lion Heart (2nd in 2004); but even a return to his best form doesn't appear to be enough.

5th to Art Collector in the G2 Blue Grass and 2nd to him in the Ellis Park Derby, but let's face it, he wasn't really a threat to Collector either time; the good news is he crept a bit closer and the Beyer went up yet again, so he's headed in the right direction; has some tactical speed so he doesn't have to come from way out of it; still, Beyerwise he's a ways behind the main favorites here and his 2 starts over this track don't exactly get the pulse racing.

Looked in deep water turning for home in the G1 Haskell at MTH July 18 but put his head down and finished resolutely, just failing to catch top-class Authentic to lose by a whisker; that type of determination is most encouraging and that run also represented another step forward; the way he's run hints today's 10th furlong shouldn't pose too big a hurdle and note ample tactical speed to be forwardly placed, maybe even ahead of the likes of Tiz the Law and Honor A. P. allowing him first run; been working splendidly and another move forward could make him a big player.

Smith/Shirreffs won this with Giacomo in 2005 and appear to have another good shot here; $850K son of G1 SW Honor Code out of G1 SW Hollywood Story has done little wrong in 5 starts; his G1 SA Derby win June 6 was a beaut, and flattered when the horse he easily beat back into 2nd (up-to-that-point-unbeaten Authentic) came right back to win the G1 Haskell; some were less than thrilled with his 2nd in the Shared Belief at DMR Aug. 1, feeling he should have beaten those but the Beyer was actually the same as in the SA Derby and that DMR race was a means to an end; worked strongly since.

The big horse here and his G1 Travers was a tour de force as he stalked, took over with ease and drew off to win in a romp, under wraps, earning easily his best Beyer; in fact, there were questions prior as his Beyers hadn't been the division's best; well, the Travers may have flushed that notion; still, good as he's been, and he's been super, who's the best horse he's beaten?; certainly hasn't beaten the likes of Honor A. P. or Authentic so this is his toughest assignment and remember his lone loss came here; working splendidly and is proven at 10fs; Tagg won this with Funny Cide in 2003.

Baffert has won 5 Derbys, 2nd only to Jimmy Jones (6); $350K son of top sire Into Mischief's only loss came to Honor A. P. when 2nd in the G1 SA Derby; posted a then-career-top Beyer but moved forward again when holding on to win the G1 Haskell at MTH July 18; that he almost got caught in the Haskell and was no match for Honor A. P. in the SA Derby has many worried about the 10fs and pedigree-wise this may be pushing it, but he's done little wrong, has worked splendidly and may be the controlling speed, and with no 'Collector to press him that makes him a little scary, right? -Michael Hammersly
