He's won 3 of 5. This one got a fast dirt track in last and crushed. Note the runner-up was 5 clear. Sits just behind the speed. VALUE: 7 SHORTLIST Deserves a long look after giving the top choice a run last out. It was first off the claim and only second off the layoff. If that race turns out to be key then both of these will hit the board. He crushed by 6.5 lengths with Gaffalione up. Winner of last start returned to run 2 nd in 150k stakes. 12 post may cause a problem. VALUE: 5 LIMONITE Been on the turf twice and ran out of the money in both. But those were in very tough stakes races. The winner two back won the G3 Appleton in next start. A nice return in last start at 9-1. Winner last out returned to win straight 25k here this weekend at 9-2. Big class change. PICK: 11 SWITHER'S SHORTCUT Trainer Amoss dipped in and claimed this one for 20k at OP two back. Both of his starts there came on off-tracks around this level. Blinkers on and it's good to see Talamo stay up. Can win. A) 4,5,8 B) 2,11 C) 5,6,9

Dam was a stakes sprint winner. He's been hurt by post draws and off-tracks. Haven't seen his best. VALUE: 1 BY YOUR SIDE Making the first start of his 3YO year in this spot. Might be looking for a bit longer down the road. Won a G3 going short in his second start. Notice how well he is working. He exits a key race.
